'BOLTING' INDIANA SENATORS STICK TO OHIO REFUGE

Fourteen Democrats Refuse to Acknowledge Warrant for Their Arrest Served by Doorkeeper.

TRUCE FOR THEIR RETURN SUGGESTED

Leader of "Strikers" Says
They Will Go Back if
G. O. P. Withdraws Opposed Measure.

By the Associated Press.
DAYTON, O., Feb. 26.—Confident that they were outside the reach of the law, 14 Democratic senators of the Indiana General Assembly reentered Dayton today.

Jerome Brown, 63 years old, principal doorkeeper of the Indiana Senate, mandated to bring back the "bolters," arrived in Dayton last night with a blanket warrant for the arrest of the men, but two members early today.

Brown said the men fully intended to acknowledge the instrument, they challenged his authority, he added.

Doorkeeper Brown shortly before noon was ordered to return to Indianapolis. He said President Truman James Neff told him to come back.

The Democratic senators arrived here in a chartered motorbus last night, having quit the Indiana legislature because of unfair legislation. The charge centered around the bill which they declared would give the Republicans an additional congressman, if passed.

Senate Unable to Function.
As a result of the "strike," the Indiana Senate was unable to do business on bills for several days. The Senate consists of 50 members, 25 of whom are Republicans and 25 Democrats. Thirty-four constitute a quorum.

Two other members of the majority were reported to be in Cincinnati yesterday. It was said by their fellows that they probably would be in Dayton today.

The other two Democrats in the upper chamber are in Indianapolis. A Democratic senator said they had talked with the secretary of the Senate and had been assured they could not be arrested by Brown. They were in a good mood and expected Brown with cheers and applause upon his arrival. Every effort was made to make the doorkeeper comfortable.

Decided, Brown got in touch with James Neff, President pro tempore of the Senate. He was told to remain close to the "bolters" until given further instructions.

Threaten to Hold Out.
Most of the "strikers" appeared to take the situation lightly. They talked, however, that they would stay away until after March 9—end of the session—unless assurance is given that the bill in question will be withdrawn. Dayton probably will be their headquarters, they added.

Among the "bolters" in Dayton is Senator Joseph Cravens, Senate minority leader, has issued two statements since reaching Dayton. He stated the Indiana Republican administration's single unit bill, terming it "political nonsense" and asserting it would accomplish its purpose. He also said the congressional bill was for other purposes than to get its author, Senator Will X. Pound of Chicago, into Congress and strengthen the Republican party in the State.

Although the men declared they were ready to stay for 10 days, many of them brought a change of clothing. Combs were at premium. When bedtime came last night they were forced to wear their coats.

"Hop" a Moving Van.
Harvey Harmon, attorney, missed a bus in which the Democrats from Indianapolis. Undaunted, he "hopped" a moving van on outskirts of the city and arrived late in the night, tired, disheveled and cold. He was enthusiastically greeted, especially by the Democratic senators who did not know he had returned.

The Indiana law provides that a legislator who willfully preaches a quo rum may be arrested and fined $1000.

Senator Cravens was in consultation with Harold van Dusen, Indiana Lieutenant-Governor and president of the State Senate, during the morning. It was understood he suggested to the withdrawal of the bill which brought about the walk-out.

MILLIONAIRE TO FIGHT MURDER PLOT CHARGES

R. M. Hotelling of San Francisco Would Face
Grand Jury Inquiry Into Alleged Conspiracy to Kill Sister-in-Law.

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—Richard M. Hotelling has requested, through his counsel, that he be permitted to go before the county grand jury Monday night and answer charges that he conspired to murder his brother's wife, Mrs. Fred Hotelling.

Richard Hotelling, 23 years, has been one of the most prominent figures. He has been equally known as a Shakespearean actor, a millionaire clubman and a land owner.

Two weeks ago Fred Hotelling, who is heir to fortune, turned over to the Board of Health the contents of a bottle of milk, which had been left on a rear porch of the Hotelling home. Analysis showed that the milk contained enough poison to kill several families.

Captain of Detectives Matheson had announced earlier in the day that Ralph King, a former patrolman of Honolulu and now a private detective here, was in the city jail and had confessed that he had been employed for $2500 to kill Fred Hotelling and Mrs. Hotelling.

According to Matheson, King said he had hired two men to kill Hotelling and Mrs. Hotelling and that the men apparently used poisoned milk.

The President's physician this morning issued a bulletin which stated that the President suddenly fell ill at noon Feb. 23, with a severe case of appendicitis which necessitated an operation that night.

Despite the fact that the operation was undertaken soon after the illness developed, the appendix was found badly inflamed and partially punctured so that peritonitis developed.

"The course of the illness was satisfactory until last night, but as often happens on the third day the peritonitis became worse last evening so that the President spent an uneasy night."

"This morning his condition was improved, but was still serious." President Ebert's secretary said the physicians expected the crisis to come today.

While the patient was sleeping at 2 o'clock this afternoon, it was reported that his heart stopped, but not so strong as the hospital attendants hoped and there was much apprehension about his condition.

At 6:20 p. m., President Ebert's physicians announced that the condition of the patient had considerably improved but was still serious.

EBERT'S CONDITION REPORTED AS SERIOUS

President of German Republic Develops Peritonitis After Operation.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Feb. 26.—President Ebert, who underwent an operation Tuesday morning for appendicitis, developed peritonitis last night. He was somewhat better this morning, but his condition was still serious.

The President's physician this morning issued a bulletin which stated that the President suddenly fell ill at noon Feb. 23, with a severe case of appendicitis which necessitated an operation that night.

Walter J. Klamann, 7, was En Route to Visit Uncle When Injured at Dubois, Ill.

Walter J. Klamann, 7-year-old son of Mrs. Sophia Klamann, 2012 Mulhally street, died yesterday at his home of internal injuries suffered Aug. 17 last at Dubois, Ill., when an automobile struck a spring wagon in which he was riding.

He had been at St. Mary's Hospital until six weeks ago, when he was taken home. He was one of four children who were sent last summer to visit an uncle, Mitchell Koelschewski, at Dubois. The uncle met with at the station and was driving to his farm when the wagon was struck by the car of a Christopher (Ill.) automobile dealer, who had swerved to avoid colliding with another automobile. All of the children were cut and bruised and returned to St. Louis when Walter was brought to the hospital here.

Same, Say Some Physicians
Four physicians who examined Kennedy assert he is sane. Dr. James W. Brownell of Vallejo says Kennedy has been hounded by navy doctors at the behest of somebody who has an ax to grind.

Mrs. Autumn Margaret Kennedy, wife of Kennedy, has started writ of habeas corpus proceedings for her husband's release. Mrs. Kennedy today described the plight of her husband as due to the cruelty of the "Auntie" combination.

"I was received well enough," Mrs. Kennedy said. "Although I earned my own living by playing the violin. I came from the concert stage and wasn't too awfully bad."

Burdick was en route from the Atlantic Coast when he committed suicide. He was married.

Must Face Courtmartial if Found Sane, Department Says.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Court-martial proceedings against Lieut. Frank E. Kennedy, now confined in the State Hospital for Insane at Santa Cal., will be pressed, it was said today at the Navy department, in the event Kennedy is found to be sane.

It was explained that the officer had been held in the hospital for 16 days, reported secretly to Chief Shreeve that Good told them last Tuesday he had traced the ownership of the liquor to Gant.

Miller said an envelope was found on the floor of the garage on the night of Feb. 19 when Miller, Bowers and Langford stole 11 cases from the whisky store.

Miller said the name of Joseph R. Gant, was on the envelope.

Bowers and Langford told me they believed the whisky stored in the garage belonged to Gant," Miller stated.

When Good was taken before Shreeve, it is said, he told of his operations in the theft of whisky with the three policemen.

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The placing of Lieut. Frank E. Kennedy, U. S. N., in the Napa State Hospital for the Insane as the supposed result of a conspiracy among some of his fellow officers, has prompted Thomas Lloyd Lennon, the lieutenant's attorney here, to telegraph United States Senator Shortridge asking for relief for the naval officer.

Senator Shortridge replied that "the subject matter of your telegram of Feb. 25 will be given sympathetic consideration."

Lennon's telegram said: "Senior Naval Lieut. Frank E. Kennedy has been sequestered in the Napa State Insane Asylum by the navy, apparently without any order of commitment of any sort. Doctors say Kennedy is perfectly normal. Kennedy claims his confinement is due to the fact that he knows the reasons for the recent suicide of Lieut. Albert P. Burleigh, and that the Navy, which refused to allow Kennedy to testify at the inquest, has sequestered him to insure his silence."

Persecution Is Alleged.
"History of the case shows that Kennedy has been persecuted by superior officers for more than a year. Charges were filed against him on June 27 last, and he has been demanding a trial upon these charges ever since, claiming they are untrue and being in possession of written evidence which refutes them."

Gant Paid Rent.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 26.—Joseph R. Gant, former member of the Park Board and one of the commissioners that drafted the new city charter, who has been under charges of forgery since the finding last November of $420,000 of forged notes in the closed Central Bank, which he headed, today was pictured in the confession of three policemen as a bootlegger on a large scale.

Gant, once mentioned for the mayoralty, who has been in jail in a sanitarium since his arrest growing out of the bank failure, was mentioned in the confession of a police chauffeur as the man who apparently had paid the rent on a garage at 7112 East Fifteenth street, where a big supply of whisky was stored.

Three policemen today confessed to Chief of Police Shreeve that they had stolen 11 cases of whisky from the garage. Chief Shreeve said he had information that Gant used the garage as a storage house for whisky and alcohol.

Gant collapsed at the sanitarium this afternoon when his attorney questioned him regarding the charges. Detectives who were at the sanitarium were not allowed to see Gant, who remained unconscious more than an hour.

Today's disclosure resulted from a personal investigation by the chief following up leads obtained in the inquiry into the murder of George Peters, former police chauffeur, whose bodies were found Sunday in a bootleggers' cave in the river bottoms from which they had been stealing whisky.

Tells of Theft From Garage.
In H. Miller, the police chauffeur declared he went to the garage in conspiracy with Lawrence Bowers and William P. Langford, patrolmen of the Sheriff's Station, who plotted a theft of the whisky with a shiffted bootlegger, "Sina" Good, Bowers and Langford were the other policemen who confessed.

STONE MOUNTAIN UNDER GUARD AFTER SCULPTOR BORGLUM IS FIRED

Deputies Looking for Designer, Who Is Accused of Smashing Models for Confederate Memorial.

COMMITTEE SAYS HE NEGLECTED WORK

Accuses Sculptor of "Inordinate Demands for Money" and "Delusions of Grandeur."

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 26.—Armed deputies today were guarding Stone Mountain and the property of the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial Association after the developments of yesterday when Gutzon Borglum was dismissed from his post as sculptor of the memorial.

Deputy Sheriff's armed with warrants charging Perdurum and J. G. Tucker, superintendent of operations at the mountain, with destruction of the designs and models for the work, today still were seeking the two.

Charges will be pressed, officials of the association said, as well as a damage suit filed against Borglum in the Cobb County Superior Court yesterday for $50,000 alleged damages caused by the destruction of the models.

Under the contract with Borglum, attorneys for the association said, the models and designs for the work were the property of the organization.

Borglum last night declared the action of the association in dismissing him was "a blow not particularly against me, but against the South. It was struck at me because I am a Northern man."

He charged that he had been unfairly treated and asserted his record for the last nine years would show that a crime was committed in dismissing him.

Mrs. Borglum, wife of the sculptor, was quoted this morning as saying the "whole design for the monument originated with Mr. Borglum, was developed by him, and many models made before any contract was entered into."

"It was his exclusive property and had been copyrighted by him. Many of the models were made in his studio at Stamford, Conn., and brought to Stone Mountain. This design belongs exclusively to Mr. Borglum, a whole conception, the whole design. Therefore Mr. Borglum had a perfect legal right to destroy his own property."

"Inordinate Demands for Money," Charged by Committee.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
The resolution canceling Borglum's contract was an arraignment of his "neglect and virtual abandonment of the contract" and his "inordinate demands for money made due him."

Within a few hours after Borglum had been dismissed the models and working plans for the memorial had been demolished in the studio at the foot of the mountain. The work of destruction was done at the order of Borglum, according to Tucker.

"Mr. Borglum ordered the models and plans destroyed so that no one else could use them after he had been succeeded by another sculptor," said Tucker.

Fragments on Studio Floor.
Borglum refused to affirm or deny that the models and plans had been destroyed, but observers looking through windows into the locked studio could see fragments of the models scattered over the floor.

The work of destruction was completed just before attorneys arrived at the mountain with copies of a court order signed by Judge John B. Hutchison of the Stone Mountain Circuit, enjoining Borglum, Tucker or any of their agents from entering the studio, scattering the mountain, or disturbing in any way the carving operations now in progress.

Informed of the destruction of the models and plans, Holts N. Randolph, president of the association, declared work on the memorial would not be hindered seriously.

"The memorial will be carried on to completion," said Randolph. "Despite the vandalism and sabotage that has resulted in the destruction of these plans and models."

The executive committee adopted a resolution serving notice on the Fiance Is Childhood Playmate, and Is Neither Wealthy Nor Active Socially—Wedding in May.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Jr. announce the engagement of their only daughter, Abby, to David Merrivether Milton Jr., a young lawyer associated with the firm of Satterlee & Canfield.

Miss Rockefeller presumably is betrothed to what probably is one of the largest family fortunes in the world. Milton, who is 25 and graduated from Columbia law school last year, is not wealthy and has not been active in society.

The marriage is scheduled to take place in May, and the couple will live in what is said to be an unpretentious apartment already selected.

Formal Announcement.
Formal announcement of the engagement, given out at the Rockefeller town home, 19 West Fifty-fourth street, yesterday, follows: "Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Jr. announce the engagement of their daughter Abby to Mr. David Merrivether Milton Jr."

Through her mother, who was Miss Abby G. Aldrich, she shares in the fortune of the late Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island.

WIDOW OF SLAIN MAN TESTIFIES TO FRICKER'S ABUSES

Mrs. Minnie Nungesser, Former Dairymaid, Tells of Being Compelled to Submit to Attention.

DOMINATED HER EVEN AFTER HER MARRIAGE

Case of Farmer Charged With Having Hired Men to Murder John Nungesser Now in Hands of Jury

Mrs. Minnie Nungesser, reared from childhood as a dairymaid on the farm of Emil Fricker, near Highland, and compelled for 10 years to submit to the attentions of her married employer, did not escape from his domination even with her marriage to John Nungesser in 1922, she testified in the Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville, where Fricker is on trial for the murder of her husband.

Within two weeks after the ceremony, she declared, Fricker renewed his advances and told her then that he meant to kill the man with whom she had eloped. A month later, she said, he held her a prisoner for three days in his room.

It is Fricker's second trial for murder within three months, and murder of another husband of this woman as well. Late in November, he was sentenced to life imprisonment for the assassination of her first husband, Robert Kehrer, in 1923. Nungesser was shot down on the road near his home on Sept. 15 last.

Death Penalty Demanded.

The case went to the jury at 2 p. m. today, the State demanding the death penalty. The prosecution rested its case following the young widow's testimony and the defense rested at 10:20 a. m. today after putting five character witnesses and Fricker himself on the stand. Fricker's testimony consisted of a general denial that he had cause to seek Nungesser's death; that he never threatened the man or sought to induce others to kill him, or had any connection with the crime. He was not questioned about his relations with Mrs. Nungesser. The character witnesses said Fricker's reputation, prior to his arrest and indictment on the murder charge, had been good.

In the closing arguments, which began shortly after noon, State Attorney Brown demanded that Fricker be hanged, pointing out that another life sentence would mean nothing. He discredited the testimony of the character witnesses, calling attention to the fact that all lived eight to 10 miles from Fricker's home and did not know the man as his neighbors knew him.

Much Interest in Case.

It was a tense and excited gathering that sat before the twice-recessed jury until 11:30 p. m. today. The witness chair late yesterday. Throughout two days, men, women and children had fought for seats or even standing room in the crowded court to hear this woman's testimony. Girls of 14 and grandmothers of 75 brought their lunches to avoid a risk of losing their seats and hundreds of other persons filled the corridors of the building waiting for somebody to leave a chair.

Although Mrs. Nungesser had wept at times during the day while testimony about the finding of her husband's body was being given, she betrayed no emotion, except that of embarrassed defiance, while on the stand herself. Her testimony was entirely in answer to direct questions and many of those pertaining to intimate topics, she answered with visible reluctance, and she apparently was greatly oppressed by the gaze of the crowd which followed her every move and leaned forward breathlessly to catch her words. She was clad in a blue dress, brown coat and a black hat and wore her hair bobbed.

State's principal witness, as she was in November in Fricker's trial for her first husband's murder, was preceded on the stand by Eldo Wernle and Jacob Landert, both of whom already are under life sentence for Nungesser's murder as they could regain possession of the money if they succeeded and death if they refused.

The plan ultimately agreed upon for the murder was to have Fricker, who was on the road and assassinate him, Fricker furnishing the weapons and directing the operations.

MRS. SCHOOLEY, ACCOMPANIED BY DEPUTY, GETS HER EFFECTS

Wife of Attorney, Suing Woman for $20,000, Visits Home Under Guard.

Mrs. Nellie Schooley telephoned the Sheriff's office at Clayton yesterday and asked for a deputy to accompany her to her home, 1246 Sutter avenue, so she might get her personal effects without interference by her husband, Roy Schooley, an attorney. The request was granted and she got her belongings while Schooley and the deputy chatted amiably in the living room.

As has been told, Mrs. Schooley is suing Mrs. Nancy Hennemeyer, 2848 Lexington avenue, for $20,000 damages, alleging alienation of Schooley's affections. Schooley and Mrs. Hennemeyer were riding in his automobile Tuesday night when Mrs. Schooley, who had been hiding in the tonneau, announced herself. A fight followed.

CONCLUSIONS OF SPECIAL NAVY BOARD

Witness Urges Construction of Planes and More Submarine Protection—Discusses Bombing.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The House Aircraft Committee convened today to take up the threads of the aircraft investigation when they were dropped last Saturday when the hearings were brought to an abrupt close. A recheck of the committee funds, showing sufficient remained for completion of the inquiry as mapped out, led to the decision to reopen the hearings.

Rear Admiral Hilary P. Jones, head of the Navy General Board, was questioned on the recent report of the special naval board on the relative values of surface ships, submarines and aircraft.

Admiral Jones read to the committee the conclusions recently announced by the Special Navy Board, which, he said, represent the mature judgment of the navy.

"If we were assured there would be no trouble for the next few years," said Jones, "we would know better how to spend the money allotted us. But as it is, it is my personal opinion that all that make up the national defense should be ready for immediate duty for such service," asked Representative Prall (Dem.) New York.

"There are a great many things we would like done," the Admiral replied, "especially in construction of aircraft and submarine protection."

Asked what would be the effect of a 2000-pound bomb dropped from an airplane on a battleship, the Admiral said that if it were not an armor-piercing bomb, "the effect probably would be local," with no serious damage to the ship's motive power or the personnel in enclosed places.

Admiral Jones testified that two 1400-pound nonexplosive "shells" were dropped from an airplane on the battleship Washington, one of which struck failed to explode, the other exploding. The one that struck failed to penetrate the deck, he added.

"The Washington was finally sunk by gunfire," asked Representative Perkins (Rep.), New Jersey. "No," it was the cumulative effect of all fire," Admiral Jones replied.

"Don't you think you might have obtained some benefits by sinking the Washington with bombs?" "No, I don't think so," he replied. "It was the cumulative effect of all fire," Admiral Jones replied.

Admiral Jones said he regretted the bombing tests had been so much debated.

"Let me say here," he added, "that certain people have impugned the honor of officers conducting the tests on the German ship Ostfriesland, and it has been unfair."

Naval officers more than any other are entitled to the confidence of the public, he said. "I have tried to learn all that is possible about the effect of airplane bombing of surface ships."

The committee voted to recall Secretary Weeks tomorrow for questioning on the army's air service.

ONE FARE TO DOWNTOWN ON 'LOG CABIN' LINE ORDERED

State Public Service Commission Holds Double Fare Now Charged Is a Discrimination.

Passengers have a right to ride from Clayton to downtown St. Louis for one fare on the Clayton, or "Log Cabin" line, as well as on the Kirkwood-Ferguson line, the State Public Service Commission ruled today. Accordingly an order, directing the United Railways Co. to abolish one of the two fares now in effect for passengers who begin their journey to downtown St. Louis on the "Log Cabin" line, was issued.

The commission held that the present practice of charging a single fare on the Kirkwood-Ferguson route and a double fare on the "Log Cabin" line was a discrimination against passengers on the latter line. The single fare on the Kirkwood-Ferguson line between the courthouse and downtown went into effect March 5 last.

British Dirigible to Carry Passengers in Its Hull

Abolition of Hanging Cabins Expected to Increase Speed of Airship Ten Miles an Hour.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The New York World and the Post-Dispatch have obtained confirmation of a report that an airship of revolutionary type is to be built for Great Britain. It will carry all its passengers and freight inside the hull and have no hanging cabins.

Commander C. D. Burney and B. N. Wallis have designed the ship. Burney said he is confident it will supersede all others and place Great Britain first in airships. The new craft will be ready in March of next year. It is to be built under an air ministry contract by the Airship Guarantee Co.

Burney claims the Air Ministry tests have shown that by carrying its load inside the hull, the ship will gain an increase range, as its speed will be increased 10 miles an hour and fuel consumption greatly reduced. Windows will be placed in the hull and the passengers accommodated in the space under the gas bags which goes to waste in existing dirigibles.

Wallis has also designed a new type of mooring mast for the ship. It is to be placed on a movable or floating platform so that the ship in a high wind can pull the mast about without encountering sufficient resistance to tear loose, as the Shenandoah once did at Lakehurst, N. J.

According to a statement given out by the Airship Guarantee Co., Dr. Hugo Eckener, representing the German Zeppelin Co., Herr Lehmann, representing the Good-year Zeppelin Co. of America, and Sir Trevor Dawson and Burney of the Airship Guarantee Co. have agreed to adopt the new mooring mast as standard.

"It was considered definitely superior to any method yet devised for mooring masts," the statement says. It was pointed out the agreement will allow any commercial airship to moor at any mast which is erected for commercial purposes.

public that Lester P. Barlow of Cleveland has no authority to represent the association in any capacity. Barlow recently has announced his intention of holding a public meeting in Cleveland March 3 to raise funds jointly for the Stone Mountain Memorial in Georgia and the Harry Peak Memorial in South Dakota. Barlow is a friend of Borglum and has been with the sculptor in Washington the last week or 10 days.

An attorney for Borglum appeared before the committee and made a defense of the sculptor's action, urging that the committee grant Borglum a personal hearing. The committee, however, decided to act on the dismissal resolution without delay.

"Delusions of Grandeur." The resolution of dismissal charged Borglum with "delusions of grandeur."

It declared that the association charged Borglum with "delusions of grandeur" by which he was to carve on the side of Stone Mountain a group of seven equestrian figures for the sum of $250,000 and that he was to furnish all labor, modeling clay and specified work on the equipment necessary to complete the work. He was to be paid, it continued, in installments and proportionately "as the work was advanced, and said payments to fairly represent the work done and the proportion to the total cost of the said central group."

The resolution set forth that the association under the contract "has paid Borglum personal compensation amounting to $34,000, labor costs and other items, amounting to $76,522, has provided him with equipment costing $49,645 and has paid him personally out of the contract $24,973, making a total of $185,140."

It added that the association was advised by its consulting engineer that Borglum has performed only 4 per cent of the roughing out of the central group and has performed no finished carving except a part of the head of Gen. Lee.

RULING ON GAME SEIZURES

Commissioner Must Have Warrant to Search Homes, Otto Holds.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 26.—The State Game and Fish Commissioner and his Deputies have no authority to search a club or home for game without first having obtained a legal search warrant, Attorney-General Otto held in an opinion given today to Game and Fish Commissioner E. H. McManis.

Otto pointed out that the Constitution protected persons from search and seizures in their homes except through legal process with a proper search warrant. Those provisions of the State Game and Fish laws permitting search and seizure of game killed or stored in violation of the game laws, Otto stated, were subject to the constitutional limitation.

Furniture Dealer Fined.

Another furniture dealer pleaded guilty today of violating the city ordinance which requires dealers to state their occupation in newspaper advertisements. He was fined $5. SAUERKRAUT FIRM'S ASSETS FERMENTED

Had to Be Hauled to River, It Is Brought Out at Bankruptcy Hearing.

Yesterday's session of bankruptcy hearings received a new flavor in the form of a tale dealing with mustard, pickles and sauerkraut.

When George J. Liedman, president of the defunct Northern Manufacturing Co., recited the merchandising difficulties incident to kraut and relishes.

The usual run of hearings before a Referee in Bankruptcy deals with cloaks, suits, caps, diamonds, oil and shoes. The story of the kraut and the relishes was a relief, and Referee Coles displayed his interest by subjecting Liedman to a searching examination.

Liedman said he bought the Northern company about a year ago, installed new machinery and purchased a motor truck. Prospective purchasers of kraut and pickles were insufficient, however, and soon Liedman was meeting the payroll from his personal funds. Then bankruptcy threatened, and Liedman interned 150 casks of kraut in cold storage as insurance against his personal output.

However, the best of plans went wrong. Liedman turned over the warehouse receipts for the kraut to his friend, Joseph Meder, a grocer.

At a previous hearing Meder testified Liedman had told him to sell the trust for the Northern company that he held the receipts as security for money advanced. Liedman. The latter denied this yesterday. Meder held the receipts and while he did things happened to the kraut. The storeroom bill mounting and the kraut fermented or something, and finally had to be hauled to the river.

Since the kraut seemed to have eliminated itself as an asset, Referee Coles instructed the trustee to check up on the pickles and machinery and render a report next month.

ATTORNEY RELEASED ON WRIT

Verne R. C. Lacy, an attorney, who was fined $100 for contempt of court by Circuit Judge Itner yesterday, because he absented himself after beginning defense of a criminal case, in order to keep up with a case in another court, obtained a writ of habeas corpus from the Court of Appeals late yesterday, releasing him from custody.

He had declined to pay the fine, believing it unjust, and was kept in the custody of Deputy Sheriffs most of the day yesterday. He took two deputies to lunch with him at a hotel. The writ is returnable before Judge Duesen next Saturday.

TWO YOUTHS SEIZE WOMAN

Screams Frustrate Attempt to Force Her Into Automobile.

Two young men in an automobile attempted to drag Mrs. Henry Protte, 31, of 2523 Warren street, into the machine, near Twenty-fifth street and St. Louis avenue, at 7 o'clock last night. She was returning home from a drug store when they stepped out, grabbed her by the arms and dragged her towards the machine.

Mrs. Protte screamed and struggled until pedestrians ran up. The youths released Mrs. Protte and escaped in the machine. Mrs. Protte told the police she never had seen the young men before.

Suit Against Kearns Dismissed.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 26.—Mrs. Mary Tenney's $200,000 suit against Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, seeking damages for an alleged attack on her by Kearns, was dismissed by a jury in Superior Court here. Mrs. Tenney originally asked for a criminal complaint against Kearns but this the District Attorney refused and the civil suit followed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Because of her lack of aerial preparedness, the United States might well be forced to ally herself as a vassal state to a wiser but poorer nation in the event of a great national emergency, Brigadier-General William Mitchell, Assistant Chief of the Army Air Service, declared in a statement prepared for the House Military Affairs Committee. "Our national defense," it said, "consists of (1) an army efficient as far as a land force is concerned, but practically helpless in the air; (2) a navy of great capital ships almost helpless in the air and deficient in submarines; and (3) no air force whatever."

"Without a dominating air force, armies and navies are merely organized for defeat in modern warfare."

"With these melancholy but incontrovertible facts before us, let us seek the cause. Evidence and warnings have not been lacking. They have been presented by those competent to speak to the executive departments and to the Congress."

"The burden of the advice has been to create an agency of the Government for the development of aviation co-equal with the army and the navy; that is, a Department of Aeronautics. Without this voice of the air in our national councils we cannot hope for a modern system of national defense, because the voice of the land and the water are no longer the sole determining factors."

No longer can we allow land, water and air power to go their own way unco-ordinated into one concrete whole and under one department, and one man charged with and responsible for all national defense."

These facts cannot be avoided by idle words or misleading information; they are fundamental truths underlying our national security. It behooves Congress and the people to investigate them thoroughly and provide the solution."

BIARRITZ, Feb. 26.—Osborne Wood is at Barcelona waiting to sail for the United States, but not New York.

The impression prevails here that American friends and his family have agreed to pay his debts and that a reconciliation with his wife is likely. However, Wood left behind him in Biarritz a check for $5,000 marks ($1750) which was returned marked "no funds" three days later.

The check was cashed at the Municipal Casino, where Wood was playing baccarat with Anthony Drexel Jr. and others. He lost the entire $5,000, and when the check came back he had gone across the Spanish frontier to San Sebastian. The Casino here is withholding criminal proceedings at the request of Americans.

PAYDAY UNEASINESS
ON CAPITOL HILLPresidential Action on Advance for Congressmen Expected in Day or Two.Special to The Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The Congressional pay increase bill, rushed through Congress without a roll call, will be put up to the President today or tomorrow. It was sent to him several days ago, but was referred to Director of the Budget, Lord, for his recommendation.When asked last night if he would comment on the measure,
Lord replied he would make his report to the White House and nobody else.As this bill makes the round of the White House and the Budget Director, there is some apprehension on Capitol Hill lest protests to the President may make an impression on his economical mind.But, among the leaders, it is generally understood the bill will be approved.President Coolidge is up against a hard problem in this salary increase bill, for when it becomes a law all of his small savings about the White House and other places will amount to nothing.Friends of the President believe the signing of the "salary advance" bill will hurt him with the people back home. They feel that many will doubt he is sincere in his program for economy.

FRANCE BOOSTS VISITORS' TAX

Fees for Identity Cards Greatly Increased.PARIS, Feb. 26.—The Chamber of Deputies has adopted the article in the revenue bill raising the fee for an identity card—which all foreign visitors intending to stay in France more than a fortnight must obtain within 48 hours of their arrival—from 10 francs to 40, plus supplementary taxes of 5 and 4 francs for the department and city of issue, respectively, making a charge of 72 francs in all.The cards are valid for three years, when they must be renewed, and the fee for renewal is fixed at 200 francs, the object being to distinguish between mere tourists and more or less permanent residents who, it is felt, ought to be asked to make a contribution to the French revenue over and above the ordinary taxes which they pay like other inhabitants, since neither they nor their children are liable to military service. Exception is made in the cases of foreign students and workmen, for whom the fee is fixed at 10 francs, either for issuance of the card or renewal. It is estimated that this tax on foreigners will yield from 200,000,000 to 250,000,000 francs annually.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the mummy old mustard plaster, done the work without stinging. Just rub it on with your finger tips. You will feel a warm tingling as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, in jars and tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have.

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician:

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow skin, full eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel, and then just to have them fit. 15c and 30c.

TERN Banded ON COAST OF MAINE FOUND IN AFRICA

Biological Survey Finds Migratory Habits of Various Birds to Vary Annually.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Feb. 26.—Banding of gulls and terns of the Great Lakes by the Inland Bird Banding Association, which is aiding the biological survey in the study of the life history of birds, disclosed that they do not follow the same direction in their migration and that the world is their field in which to hibernate.

A small common tern that was banded on the coast of Maine was found on the Nigra River in Africa. A number of herring gulls banded in the Beaver Islands were found in the Atlantic Ocean near the Georgia-Florida line, and another young bird almost from the same nest was reported from the north central part of Texas. More than $500 birds were banded by the association last year and as many more will be tagged this season.

"One of the conspicuous birds that comes to our district this winter is the tree sparrow," said Lyon. "It nests in Canada as far north as the Hudson Bay and spends its winters around the Great Lakes. Two years ago we banded 46 of these birds and the next year we were surprised to have eight of them come back to the same district to be trapped again. During the season we added 50 more to the total and this winter already have had three of the eight that were trapped in 1922 and in 1923 come back again."

BANKRUPTCY SUIT AGAINST REALTY FIRM BY ARCHITECT

He Claims $4250 Fee for Plans for Abandoned Project at Grand and Franklin.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed today against the Grand-Franklin Realty Co. by Henry W. Kirchner, architect, who claims a $4250 fee for plans, specifications and estimates on a 10-story building projected for the northeast corner of Grand boulevard and Franklin avenue, the former site of Central Y. M. C. A. Kirchner's petition alleged that the realty company committed an act of bankruptcy Jan. 2 by surrendering its leasehold on the property to one Huey Sam, and making a new lease whereby "Huey Sam received $21,000 and a valuable lease in another proposed building." This, it is alleged, Sam was preferred over other creditors of a similar class. Officers of the Grand-Franklin company could not be reached for a statement.

'SMILING JOHNNY MAHER' GETS DIVORCE, CHARGING DESERTION

John Maher of 3888 Westminster place—"Smiling Johnny Maher" to many St. Louis moviegoers, before whom he sings sentimental love songs in motion picture houses with the spotlight playing upon him—sang of romance in a minor key in Circuit Judge Pearce's Court today, and was awarded a divorce on grounds of desertion.

His wife, Mrs. Mabel Maher, did not contest the suit. He said he did not know her present address. Both are 33 years old.

FREUND RETIRES AS DIRECTOR

Was One of Founders of Stix, Baer & Fuller Co.

Leopold Freund, one of the founders of the Stix, Baer & Fuller Dry Goods Co., was guest of honor at a dinner given by buyers and office officials of his company at Hotel Statler last night on the occasion of his retirement as a director of the firm.

Freund, who is 69 years old, is retiring from active business life because of ill health. He started with the firm in 1880, when Aaron Fuller and Julius and Sigmund Baer opened one of the first department stores in the country at Port Smith, Ark. In 1904 he became a member of the firm and is credited with having created the "bargain basement" idea. He plans to continue as a free lance in the store, with reduced responsibilities.

GIRL FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

She Was First Adjudged Insane After Death of Infant Brother.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Feb. 26.—Mary Claire Berry, 17-year-old schoolgirl, was acquitted of the poisoning of her 6-year-old brother, Emory, here last night. The girl, found as the jury returned a verdict, after almost 11 hours of deliberation. Persons who had crowded the courtroom during the trial cheered as the verdict was read. Two brothers of the girl, Adolphus, aged 3, and Emory, 6, died on consecutive days last fall. An autopsy revealed traces of poison in the stomachs.

A day after the death of Emory the girl was adjudged insane and committed to a sanitarium, where she was held for three months. After she had been pronounced sane and released from the sanitarium a grand jury indicted her for the alleged murder of Emory.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to comb or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop.

and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you may have. This simple remedy never fails.

THE REASON FOR WRINKLES—AND THE REMEDY

Why do wrinkles, crow's feet, sagging lines and furrows rob my face of its youthful, youthful look? What can I do to remove these marks of premature age?

Let every girl and woman who has spent hours of worry before her mirror now read the following important discovery made by a noted house of beauty experts—what causes wrinkles and how they can be banished forever.

Life today is more active, more complicated than the simple problems of our grandmothers. It requires greater physical exertion and greater mental strain. Strains today the extra activity reflects itself in the tissues of your face. They weaken under the pressure, break down and become flabby. Naturally, as the skin is merely a covering of these tissues, it sags and creases, because there is no firm foundation to hold it taut, just as a glove, too big for the hand, is never a trim fit. Sagging lines and furrows appear every night.

You may believe massage and electrical treatments will remove these unsightly creases. They will not, that is, not permanently.

A massage stretches the skin smooth, but what happens within an hour or so? Like a rubber band it snaps back into creases and furrows because there is no solid foundation to hold it taut. "What then," you ask, "is a better method?"

The answer to this question is one of Science's greatest gifts to womanhood. The famous House of Beauty Experts, after years of study over this problem, have at last perfected an almost magical cream. It is called Domine's Wrinkle Cream and it helps remove wrinkles, crows' feet and every line.

Simply do this. Gently pat it on the face. As it hardens, it draws the skin taut, ironing out each crease and furrow. Now why are they called "Domine's Wrinkle Cream"? Because it is the skin through the facial pores and feeds the facial tissues, rebuilding them to their former firmness of youth. The skin is given no further opportunity to sag, for beneath it is strong, healthy skin.

This miraculous preparation has been known to remove all wrinkles from the face after a few applications, and its daily use for a week or two brings back to you the natural smoothness and texture of a baby's skin.

It wrinkles and lines have been your beauty problem, do this today. Purchase a tube of Domine's Wrinkle Cream at your druggist. It costs less than a single "facial" and lasts for weeks. Use it conscientiously and your wrinkles will be a worry of the past. Recommended by Wolff-Wilson Drug Co.

SEEK TO CONSTRUCT WILL UNDER WHICH EMPLOYEES SHARE

Executors of the Estate of Charles Herboth, Merchant, Request Court Interpretation.

A suit to construe the will of Charles Herboth, president of the Herboth Mercantile Co. and the Monmouth Pottery Co., 1426 North Broadway, who bequeathed one-third of his $700,000 estate to employees, was filed today in the Circuit Court.

Herboth's widow, Mrs. Anna Herboth; Mansfield White and James W. Webb, executors, are plaintiffs in the suit, which sets forth that they are in doubt as to how to make distribution under the provisions relating to employees and certain relatives.

Herboth died Jan. 2, 1924. His will, written by himself, six months before his death, bequeathed one-third of his property to his wife, one-third to relatives and the remaining one-third to "people of my employ." Nineteen persons are named as defendants, the petition setting forth that to the best of plaintiffs' knowledge and belief the defendants and Mrs. Herboth are the only persons entitled to share in Herboth's property. For the protection of the executors, however, a court interpretation of the will is sought.

Confused by Expression.
Forest P. Trailes, attorney for the estate, explained to a Post-Dispatch reporter today that the executors have become confused concerning the expression, "People of my employ." They do not know whether Herboth meant to include all persons employed in any capacity by him or whether just those working for him on salary at his place of business. Further, did he mean those who were working for him at the time the will was made or just those employed by him at the time of his death?

As to the provision in regard to the relatives, the Court is asked to find evidence and determine who are entitled to participate within the class described as "sisters and children of living and deceased sisters" of the testator and the proportion to which each is entitled.

Ten such relatives, who the executors believe came within this class, are mentioned in the suit as defendants. In the business class those who were working for Herboth at his place of business at the time of his death are named in the suit. They are Paul Bandelow, manager; George Buehler, Alice Bulger, Marie Bulger, Otto Hartke, Robert Buckstahl, Albert Knauer and William Hays. The latter was office boy and went to work for the Herboth Mercantile Co. shortly before the owner died. Mrs. Minnie Mulvey, a relative, is also named as a defendant. It being stated that she claims a share as an employee on account of certain service rendered at Herboth's home, 4934 Buckingham court.

Widow Claimed Dower Rights.
If it is found that only the employees named as defendants are within the "employees' class" then each will receive between $15,000 and $20,000. Their portion would have been much larger if Mrs. Herboth had not renounced the will and claimed her legal dower. This action gave her one-half of her husband's property. They had no children.

In the same suit the executors further ask an interpretation of their right to sell real estate. They have an opportunity to sell a parcel at Eighteenth and Chestnut streets and another on Talmage avenue, but because of the doubt as to the beneficiaries, a construction of the will is necessary in order to give a clear title to the purchaser.

THREE WOMEN HIT BY AUTOS
One Suffers Concussion of Brain, Other Lesser Injuries.

Mrs. John Whittier, 35 years old, of 1907 North Thirteenth street, suffered concussion of the brain and a lacerated scalp at 8:30 p. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile driven by Edward H. Pelker, 4021 Glasgow avenue, as she crossed Grand boulevard at Caroline street.

Miss Emma Guetler, 20, of 2355 De Tonty street, was knocked down by an automobile at Grand boulevard and De Tonty street at 5:15 p. m. as she crossed Grand in the rear of a street car as it started after discharging passengers. An automobile driven by George W. Ellis, 3745 Garnier avenue, following the street car, struck her. She suffered injuries to the back and ribs and internal injuries.

Mrs. Emily Mitchell, 24, of 3882 Delmar boulevard, was knocked down by a taxicab as she crossed Twelfth boulevard east of Vandeventer avenue at 7:20 p. m. She suffered a fractured pelvis and left arm and internal injuries. The driver said he did not see Mrs. Mitchell until the automobile was within a few feet of her.

Girl Missing From Home.
Mrs. Frank Otis of 1714 Wash street, has asked the police to search for her daughter, Edna Hobstener, 29 years old, who left home at noon last Monday to look for work and did not return. She was wearing a brown coat with a fur collar, a blue silk hat and yellow stockings.

GOLD RUSH IN SIBERIA REPORTED

Fur Dealer Says 20,000 Miners Have Gone to New Camp
on Aldon River.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 24.—Olaf Swenson, president of a wholesale fur company here, who has just returned from Vladivostok, said today that 20,000 miners have rushed to the scene of a gold discovery in Southeastern Siberia, 250 miles northeast of Blagoveshensk, on the headwaters of the Aldon River, a tributary of the Lena.

"Owing to the great excitement throughout Russia over the discovery, the soviet government has closed the camp and no additional prospectors are being permitted to enter the district," said Swenson. "No person is allowed to take out more than 500 rubles and no one can remain in the district over four months."

"Food and mining implements are packed 250 miles on the prospectors' backs. Nine thousand rubles are considered quite a fortune and a number of Russians are taking advantage of the gold stampede. All the miners use the old-fashioned rocker to wash out the gold. There are no claims. The clean-ups are under government supervision and exact records are kept by government officials."

Swenson said he reached Vladivostok a few days after the death of Charles H. Wells, American leader of a fur-hunting party of Alaska Eskimos who were taken off Wrangell Island by the soviet gunboat, Red October, in August. Swenson said Wells died in a hospital. He was waiting his permit to leave Russia when he became ill, stated Swenson. The fur trader declared that fur in Wells' possession were stored in Vladivostok and were awaiting proof of ownership.

DEVICES PLAN TO SAVE MONEY FOR EGG PRODUCERS

Extension Poultryman Proposes to Ship Oklahoma Product
From Kansas.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. ENID, Ok.—Thousands of dollars will be saved for Oklahoma egg producers if a plan devised by F. C. Old, extension poultryman of Oklahoma A. & M. College, to abolish alleged discrimination of the Eastern markets against Oklahoma eggs, is adopted. Old declares. He says that New York buyers pay an average of 5 cents less per dozen for eggs which are shipped from Oklahoma. The same eggs shipped from Kansas points would not be affected. At this rate the saving on one carload of eggs shipped from Kansas is $120.

Local poultry houses report that they ship all eggs bought in this state from Kansas points to take advantage of the situation. Old has made arrangements with New York buyers to test the eggs shipped there in the special car and buy them on the basis of grades. He stated that he is certain any discrimination against the eggs of this State will be a thing of the past when Eastern buyers are convinced that Oklahoma eggs are as good as those from other states.

HERD OF 1800 REINDEER READY FOR U. S. MARKETS

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NOME, Alaska.—A herd of 1800 reindeer from one of the largest ranches on the tundra has arrived at Golofin, on the north shore of Newton Sound, after a 200-mile drive from the Kutzubue country. The journey was completed in a little over a week, little snow being encountered.

The deer are fat and will be slaughtered at once and placed in cold storage for shipment to Seattle on the first boat after navigation opens next spring. Regularly a herd will arrive at Golofin from various ranches for the markets of the States. More frozen reindeer carcases than ever before will appear on the market next summer.

Four Priests Made Monsignors. LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—An event without precedence in the South-west was the conferring of the rank of monsignor upon four Arkansas Catholic priests by the Rt. Rev. J. B. Morris, bishop of the diocese of Little Rock, for their outstanding work in their parishes, upon recognition of Pope Pius XI. The titles were invested with impressive ceremonies at St. Andrew's Cathedral here.

FLOYD COLLINS' FAMILY IN DISPUTE OVER ESTATE
Brothers File Petitions to Have Father Disqualified as Administrator.
By the Associated Press.
MUNFORDSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 26.
Three brothers of Floyd Collins, who lost his life in Sand Cave, near Cave City, yesterday filed petitions in the Hart County Court to have their father, Lee Collins, disqualified as administrator of the victim's estate.

The estate consists principally of Floyd's half interest in Crystal Cave, owned jointly by Lee Collins, as it was discovered on the Collins'
farm by the cave victim.
The brothers, Homer, Marshall and Andy Lee, allege in their petitions that their father is "non compos mentis." Grief because of his son's death and his age are stated to be contributing factors to the aged father's alleged condition.
Lee Collins, heartbroken over the futile 17-day fight to reach his son alive, is known to be anxious to dispose of the cave and use the proceeds to provide for himself during the remainder of his days.
Two of the sons, however, favor retaining the cave and operating it, believing it would attract many sightseers as a result of the publicity given it by the fate of their brother.

Vassar Extends Ban on Smoking.
By the Associated Press.
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Feb.
26.—Resolutions adopted by the students' association of Vassar College yesterday continued the ban against smoking in college buildings. Recent agitation for a change in the self-imposed student rules against smoking on camp resulted in the filing of questionnaires and in yesterday's reiteration of the students' original stand on the smoking question.

Milk of Magnesia and Mineral Oil now Combined

One of the most important medical achievements of recent years is the combination of milk of magnesia and mineral oil. Haley's Magnesia-Oil successfully combines the two, and makes them doubly effective.

The oil carries the magnesia straight to the lower bowel, the seat of most so-called stomach trouble. All of the antacid properties of the milk of magnesia are applied to correcting the trouble at its source. Poisonous acids are neutralized, clogged tracts are lubricated—at one and the same time. Action is prompt, but devoid of griping. Delightful to take; no oily taste. Can be mixed with milk and given children without their knowledge.

Get a bottle of Haley's Magnesia-Oil today. Most druggists will it. If you can't supply you we will mail a bottle postpaid on receipt of price. Large family size, $1. The Haley M-O Company,

ONE DAY SALE

Beginning Friday Morning at 9 o'clock

Those who attended our first end-of-the-month sale will be sure to attend the second one which begins Friday morning. They know what this sale means, what wonderful bargains can be secured and they also realize how important it is to shop early.

This sale has its advantages and its disadvantages. The bargains are extraordinary, but the quantities are limited. Odds and ends are offered at sacrifices that are unusual.

We cannot publish the details because if we told you what various groups of coats, dresses, blouses, lingerie, hosiery, shoes, millinery, etc. etc., are to be sold for, the demand would be far greater than the supply.

We do not want to disappoint you and we do not want you to be disappointed, so come early.

The sale begins at 9:00 o'clock. We list in the column at the side many of the departments represented and an inkling of the items that are to be found.

JUDGE DENOUNCES CHURCHMEN WHO RENT TO LIQUOR VENDORS

Edwardsville Defendant Is Fined $1000 on Plea of Guilty to Liquor Conspiracy.

By the Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 26.—Highly respected church people, who own property where the Federal prohibition act is violated, are criminals of the same sort as the vendor of the liquor, Federal Judge Louis Fitzhenry has ruled following his summary action in the case of William Stahlhut of Edwardsville yesterday.

Stahlhut was indicted on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Federal liquor laws and yesterday was fined $1000 on a plea of guilty. Judge Fitzhenry indicated in finding him that a prison term might be more effective, but relented for the reason that Stahlhut is in poor health.

Stahlhut is the owner of a building in Edwardsville. He rented a part of it to Louis Ahrens, who is charged with conducting a prosperous bootlegging business. Both men were indicted for conspiracy. Stahlhut pleaded guilty and Ahrens will be arraigned tomorrow.

The North Fourteenth Street Improvement Association will hold its annual dinner this evening at the American Annex Hotel, when officers for the ensuing year will be installed. They are George Hartman, president; August Kurtz, vice president; Dr. W. H. Hesseman, secretary, and Frank E. Peters, treasurer.

Night Coughing—How to Stop It

Night coughing which, through loss of valuable sleep, often makes you feel utterly worn-out and useless during the day, and by quickly weakening the system lays you open to the most dangerous infections, can now be promptly checked by a very simple treatment. People who have hardly been able to rest on account of coughing spells have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed after the very first trial.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery. You simply take a teaspoonful at night, before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and breaks the soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which is the real cause of the cough. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe the very first night, and the cough goes in a very short time.

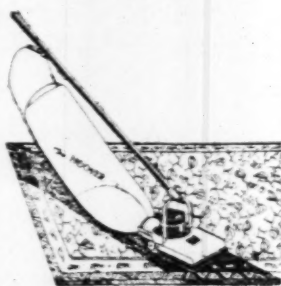

The prescription contains no opiates or harmful drugs. Excellent for children as well as grown-ups. For coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, sore throat, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, laryngitis and bronchial asthma. At all good druggists. Ask for

RURAL MISSOURI KILLS ATTEMPT TO REVIVE RACING

Legislators' Fear of the Opinion in Country on
Betting Feature Causes
Defeat of Bill in House.

MOTION TO ENGROSS
BEATEN, 88 TO 53

Action Ends Effort to Pass
Racing Legislation at
This Session and Probably for Several Years.

By CURTIS A. BETTS,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 24.—A fear by legislators of the force of public opinion in rural Missouri caused the defeat, late yesterday, in the House of the Harpes bill to restore horse racing in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph through legalization of gambling through pari-mutuel machines. The vote was 88 to 53.

The attitude of the House would make it appear almost certain that if legalized betting is necessary to support racing there will be no racing on a large scale in Missouri for many years, as the promoters of the measure had included in the bill nearly every vote-catching provision that could be imagined.

Realizing the opposition which would develop to the bill because of its gambling features, it was proposed to confine its operations to counties having populations in excess of 70,000. The measure's backers hoped rural Missouri would not object to racing in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph.

Kennedy Features Brushed Aside. The bill included a provision requiring, in addition to a daily license fee of $100, the collection for the State of 25 cents from each person admitted to the races, which would have meant added revenue of several hundred thousand dollars a year to the State.

To make the revenue feature attractive to the rural legislator, the bill was written to provide that the money should be divided in equal parts between the College of Agriculture of the State University, the State Board of Agriculture and the State school fund.

Out of the money so received by the Board of Agriculture, it was to pay 25 per cent of the premiums offered at county and district fairs in the State, and the money, when to the school fund was to be apportioned to the common and consolidated schools of the State for expenditure in the teaching of agriculture.

But when the bill came up in the House, its supporters saw the rural members brush aside, as of no consequence, its revenue features.

Many Speeches in Opposition. There was only one question involved in the debate, and that was the moral question of the propriety of the State legalizing gambling. Although the debate continued nearly four hours, there were few speeches in support of the bill, but there were many against it, a number of them being impassioned appeals.

On the outcome of the first test, which was taken shortly before noon, the advocates of the bill saw some hope. It was on an amendment offered by Representative Bates of Shannon County, and sought to prohibit these conducting races under the provisions of the measure from admitting to them any person under 21 years of age, and from admitting any person who held any position which included among its duties the handling of money belonging to others. Violation was made punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary from three to five years.

The amendment was so drastic that it failed to receive the support of many who were opposed to the bill, the vote being 66 for it and 77 against.

Robertson Amendment Fatal. In the afternoon Representative Robertson offered an amendment striking out all of the provisions of the bill authorizing betting, and substituting a provision authorizing the holding of races under the present provisions of the law. It was readily recognized that Robertson's amendment would kill the entire purpose of the bill, and for that reason Speaker Parker ruled that debate be not limited to the amendment, but should be permitted to go to the merits of the bill as a whole.

The vote on this amendment was the real test for the measure in the House. It was adopted, 83 to 57.

RURAL MISSOURI KILLS ATTEMPT TO REVIVE RACING

Legislators' Fear of the Opinion in Country on
Betting Feature Causes
Defeat of Bill in House.

MOTION TO ENGROSS BEATEN, 88 TO 53

Action Ends Effort to Pass
Racing Legislation at
This Session and Probably for Several Years.

By CURTIS A. BETTS.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 26.—A fear by legislators of the force of public opinion in rural Missouri caused the defeat, late yesterday, in the House of the Harper bill to restore horse racing in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph through legislation of gambling through pari-mutuel machines. The vote was 88 to 53.

The attempt of the House would have legalized betting features, it was proposed to confine its operations to counties having populations in excess of 70,000. The measure's backers hoped rural Missouri would not object to racing in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph. However, the measure was brushed aside.

The bill included a provision requiring, in addition to a daily license fee of $100, the collection for the State of 25 cents from each person admitted to the races, which would have meant added revenue of several hundred thousand dollars a year to the State.

To make the measure more attractive to the rural legislator, the bill was written to provide that the money should be divided in equal parts between the College of Agriculture of the State University, the State Board of Agriculture and the State school fund.

Out of the money so received by the Board of Agriculture, it was to pay 25 per cent of the premiums offered at county and district fairs in the State, and the money went to the school fund was to be apportioned to the common and consolidated schools of the State for expenditure in the teaching of agriculture.

But when the bill came up in the House, its supporters saw the rural members brush aside, as of consequence, its revenue features.

Many Speeches in Opposition.

There was only one question involved in the debate, and that was the moral question of the propriety of the State legalizing gambling. Although the debate continued nearly four hours, there were few speeches in support of the bill, but there were many against it, a number of them being impassioned appeals.

On the outcome of the first test, which was taken shortly before noon, the advocates of the bill saw some hope. It was on an amendment offered by Representative Bogue to prohibit the conduct of races under the provisions of the measure from admitting to them any person under 21 years of age, and from admitting any person who held any position which included among its duties the handling of money belonging to others. Violation was made punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary from three to five years.

The amendment was so drastic that it failed to receive the support of many who were opposed to the bill, the vote being 66 for it and 77 against.

Roberson Amendment Fatal.

In the afternoon Representative Roberson offered an amendment striking out all of the provisions of the bill authorizing betting, and substituting a provision authorizing the holding of races under the present provisions of the law. It was readily recognized that Roberson's amendment would kill the racing purpose of the bill, and for that reason Speaker Parker ruled that debate be not limited to the amendment, but should be permitted to go to the merits of the bill as a whole.

The vote on this amendment was the real test for the measure in the House. It was adopted, 83 to 57.

COURAGE IN LEAGUE CONTEST PRAISED

Body Taken From the Capital to Chicago for Funeral Services Tomorrow.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—President and Mrs. Coolidge joined with members of the Senate and House and others high in the official life of the nation to pay last respects today to Medill McCormick, senior Senator from Illinois, who died here unexpectedly yesterday.

Funeral services at the home here of Countess Eleanor Gizecka, formerly Miss Eleanor Patterson of Chicago, were arranged to permit the attendance of friends and officials with whom the Illinois Senator was closely associated in public life. Rev. J. J. Muir, chaplain of the Senate, was chosen to conduct the services.

At the services tributes were paid to the memory of the Illinois Senator by Senator Reed of Missouri, who fought shoulder to shoulder with Senator McCormick as an irreconcilable in the League of Nations fight and Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania.

The entire Cabinet was in attendance. Virtually the entire Senate and Speaker Gillett and the party leaders, as well as the Illinois delegation in the House of Representatives, and Chief Justice Taft.

Reed spoke of Senator McCormick in national life, particularly emphasizing his courage in the League of Nations contest.

Pepper told of his qualities as a friend in your ears and the doubt of your fidelity be raised, that is the rarest attribute of the human soul.

"This man had his mettle tried, and it was found to be true. With eye unflinching he stood as firm as did ever a soldier on the field, a martyr at the stake. I say he proved his mettle, and the country has lost with regret his services."

The Senate met at 11 o'clock today, the hour of the funeral, but immediately recessed for an hour and a quarter.

Accompanied by close relatives and members of the Senate and House, the body was started this afternoon for Chicago. Mrs. McCormick arriving from there early today to attend the services here, accompanied the body to Chicago, where the funeral services will be held tomorrow.

Burial to Be Near Summer Home at Byron, Ill.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—The funeral of Senator Medill McCormick will be conducted at 11:30 tomorrow from the Fourth Presbyterian Church, to which the body will be taken immediately after its arrival here from Washington.

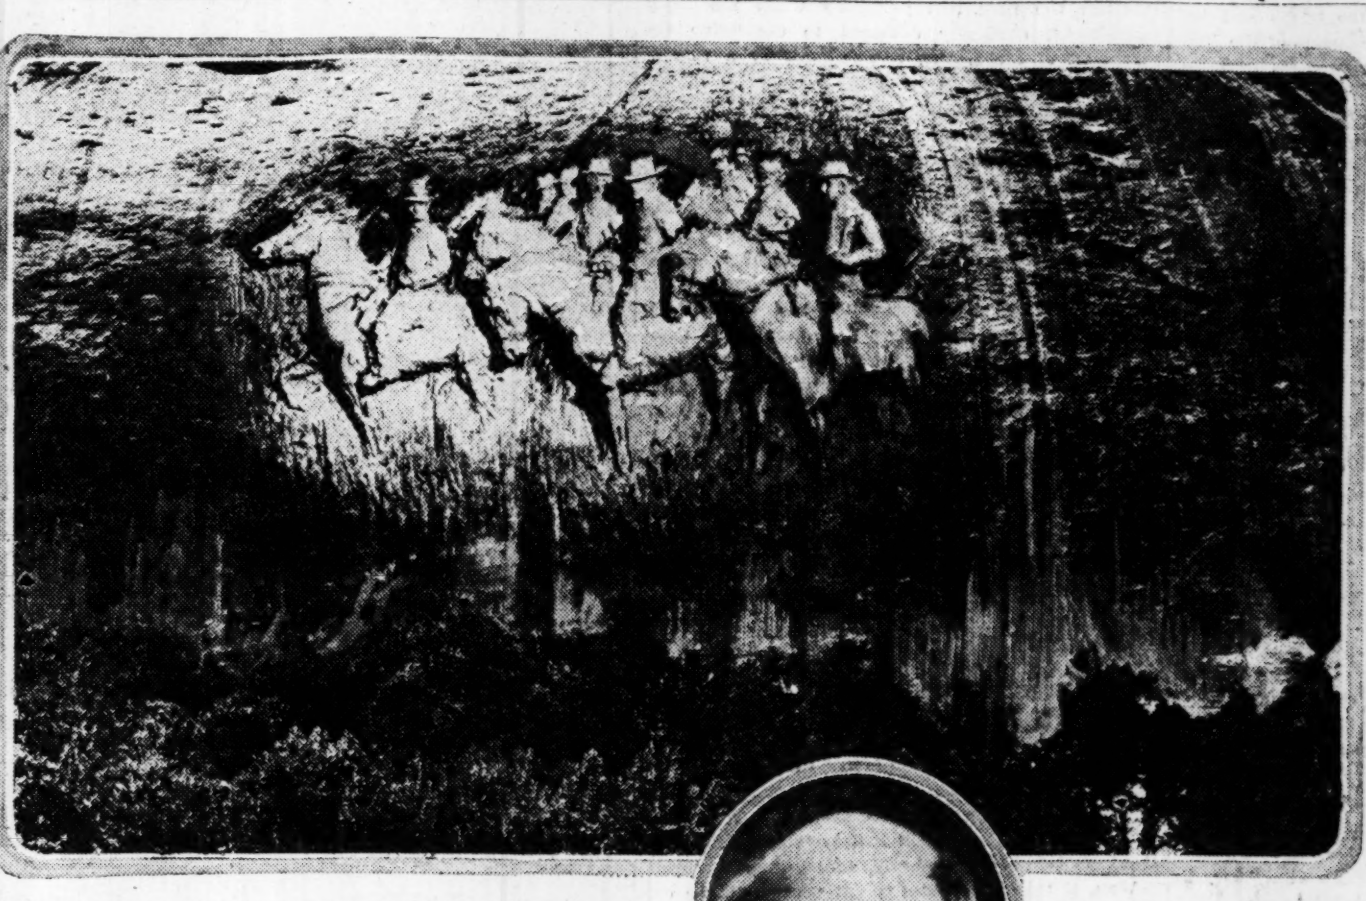

The Rev. H. Dalzell, acting pastor of the church, will officiate, and the Presbyterian pastor of Byron, Ill., near the McCormick summer home, also will speak. Later the body will be entombed in Graceland Cemetery, pending final burial at Byron.

Charles G. Dawes, Vice President-elect, will pay a tribute to the dead Senator, said:

"The recollection which comes to me most forcibly in his death is of those manifestations of Medill's sincere desire to be helpful to others."

"For years the work of Medill McCormick and his wife among the poor of the West Side, in times of widespread suffering, during a long period of industrial depression, was as important as it was obscure. Behind the efforts for relief made by others, he subordinated himself in every way. He helped thousands over a hard road without expectation or hope of public reward or notice."

COMMISSION AIDING 6000 BLIND PERSONS

Missouri Body Reports on Industrial Teaching in Last Two Years.

Six thousand blind persons in Missouri are on the roster of the Missouri Commission for the Blind, according to the commission's fifth biennial report, which tells how $135,339.26 was spent in two years, 1923 and 1924, on behalf of the blind.

The sum includes the cost of administering the $300-a-year pensions provided for some 3300 blind by the Pension Act of 1923, but does not include the actual outlay in pensions. The expenditures were principally for maintaining shops in St. Louis, Kansas City and Jefferson City, and in home teaching work.

"Prevention of blindness and conservation of the blind, are the two things which the commission desires to stress most emphatically," the report said. "Unless these two objects can be attained, much of the labor and expense will be wasted. If they are neglected, the State will soon find itself under a very heavy burden of taxation, with no alternative except the inhuman one of abandoning these stricken people to a deplorable fate."

The commission's work, the description of the commission's work, as described in the report, follows in part:

"The commission has in its records names and addresses of more than 6000 blind in Missouri, with data as to each of them, showing the condition of their vision, its causes, duration, etc., which is of great value in relief work."

Three shops are maintained in the State where men are trained industrially. In the St. Louis shop they make brooms, brushes, baskets, mats, rugs, do chair caning and shoe repairing. The work is handled so that the workers, as they become competent, leave the shop and engage in profitable employment on their own account, their places being filled usually by untrained workers. In spite of this, the net cost of operations for the two-year period was $42,553.92, against a total operating cost of $129,811.33.

"The records of the commission show the saving of the sight of 26 infants, all children of poor parents; also the saving of the sight of 32 adults; 1336 partially blind persons in danger of losing sight were sent to oculists for free treatment."

Home Teaching.

"The State is now divided into eight districts, with a competent home teacher and a guide in each district. The home teachers are all blind persons, capable and well adapted to the task. They visit fellow blind, both as to the reading and writing of Braille, or other suitable print, and also to instruct in industrial and vocational training in their homes. Along such useful and profitable lines as weaving, basketry, broom and brush making, rug weaving, sewing, knitting, crocheting and every practical branch of industry suitable for sightless workers in their homes."

The Commission for the Blind is headed by Leslie Dana of St. Louis, as chairman, and Fred Arnold, vice chairman. Mrs. Anna F. Harris of St. Louis is executive secretary.

NO WEATHER REPORT BY MAIL

The St. Louis Weather Bureau, beginning Saturday, will discontinue publication and distribution of forecast cards. In announcing the discontinuance, the Bureau points out that the forecasts carried by the cards are available in newspapers earlier than many cards can reach their destination. It adds that "the excellent dissemination given weather information by St. Louis radio stations has rendered the mailing of forecasts to the surrounding country almost totally unnecessary."

The experiment of suspending publication of the cards has been tried out successfully in New York, Chicago, Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

Denied Leave to Oversee Subway.

LOSS OF SEVERAL BACKERS IS BLOW TO DUBUQUE U.

One of Many Benefactors of School Who Have Died
Recently Was Francis H.
Peters.

ST. LOUISIAN GAVE MUCH TO COLLEGE

Passing of Others Causes

Campaign Here.

When Francis H. Peters, one of the founders of the Peters Shoe Co., died at his home here last August, it was estimated the University of Dubuque, Ia., his favorite philanthropy, had received $300,000 from him in 25 years.

With his death at 86 years, his periodic gifts to the Presbyterian Seminary automatically stopped. Likewise, in a period of four years, half a dozen other wealthy benefactors, of the same generation of self-made men, had died. These benefactors, who for 20 years had guarded the school's welfare, were gone, and their places had not been filled.

As a result, Dubuque University is in grave danger. With property valued at a million dollars, it is living from hand to mouth. This oldest of Presbyterian seminaries, dedicated to training ministers and missionaries, mostly of foreign blood, for the work of preaching the Presbyterian doctrine among the heathen, is almost bankrupt. With no men like Peters to call upon now, its faculty has been unpaid since Jan. 1, its annual budget is short $50,000, and the money which finances an endowment campaign, now in progress, is borrowed money.

History of the School.

Dubuque University was founded in 1852. Twenty-five years ago, when Peters became interested, it occupied a few small buildings worth in all about $10,000. In 1907 it moved to its present location, with six buildings, where, through its benefactors, it took a position in the front rank of educational institutions.

In those days, the school rarely asked for help. The mass of people of the city barely knew that it existed. When funds were needed, there were the benefactors. Peters gave Peters Common, the largest building of the group, and other benefactors provided for the rest. In Peters' will $25,000 was left to Dubuque University. A small sum for a school with an annual budget of $175,000. Last spring, when the Rev. K. F. Wetstone, president of the university, called on the City of Dubuque to aid in raising current bills and raised $110,000. For eight months he has been touring the country on behalf of a $1,750,000 endowment fund. For two months he has been in St. Louis.

Power for Americanization.

"We don't want charity," he said today to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "We are not begging for money. We want to convince business men that the school is an investment. It trains men and women to assume leadership of our foreign-born people. The foreign church as a rule isolates the people by racial lines; our men and women are taught to assimilate them. If Dubuque University fails, it means that one of the strongest powers for Americanization is removed."

Dr. Wetstone explained that the university now has a $750,000 endowment fund, a faculty of 39, and a student body of 250. This year's income is $125,000 against a budget of $175,000.

"We could turn the property over to the General Assembly of the church, and say 'liquidate it,'" said Dr. Wetstone. "But we will not do that. For a year or two we will have to work to meet even current expenses, but the period of change will pass; it is bound to pass. Right now there is nothing material to show for my 8 months' work, but I am convinced I am sowing a seed which ultimately will bear fruit."

Wetstone Former Pastor Here.

Peters was a member of Sidney Street Presbyterian Church, which has also had a Dubuque graduate as pastor. Dr. Wetstone served there for six years before appointment as president of the university Jan. 1, 1924.

DEFENSE "AS PEACE INSURANCE"

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Delegates representing 26 national defense organizations claiming membership aggregating 1,000,000 pledged themselves to promote the cause of peace and at the same time support a policy of adequate national defense "as the best peace insurance" at the concluding session of the Women's Conference on National Defense as peace insurance yesterday.

GARY CORPORATION SCALE CONTROLS ALL STEEL WAGES

& I. Cramped by Its Power.

MAKES FUTILE PLAN OF REPRESENTATION

But Employe - Company Council Plan Resulted in
8-Hour Day 5 Years Before
U. S. Steel Granted It

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK CITY, Feb. 26.—The far-reaching extent to which the labor policy of the United States Steel Corporation determines the wage scale of steel workers throughout the industry and thereby makes difficult the development of the employees' representation movement is shown in a report issued today by the Industrial Studies Department of the Russell Sage Foundation as the result of a five-year investigation of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co., one of the independent steel companies, of which the Rockefeller family is principal owner.

The report declares that through the Rockefeller employees' representation plan, the men in the steel works of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. were able to get the actual eight-hour day five years before the Steel Corporation and the rest of the industry adopted it, but points out that because the company feels impelled to follow the wage scale of its competitors, chief among which is the Steel Corporation, its workmen have no real share in the determination of their wages. This, the report says, limits seriously the scope of the employees' representation plan which in other respects has accomplished much good.

Representation Not Effective.

"In an industry so devoid of any tradition concerning representation of the workers as the steel industry is," declared Mary Van Kleeck, director of the foundation's department of industrial studies, "the industrial representation plan of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. marks a distinct step in advance; for under the plan the men in the steel works of this company obtained such important gains as the actual eight-hour day, an opportunity to participate in revising wage scales, a method of presenting and discussing grievances, and a greater degree of security in their jobs through the right to appeal to higher officials against the decisions of foremen and superintendents. When one looks at these accomplishments and then considers the methods of the United States Steel Corporation, one must conclude that at least in one small segment of the industry the wage-earners have been given a voice in determining the conditions under which they must work. Nevertheless, until the men throughout the industry obtain adequate and effective representation in determining wage standards, those employed in any one plant, such as the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co.'s steel works, are bound to be dissatisfied. Every dissatisfied worker in this company are reminded by their pay envelopes that the scope of their representation does not give them an effective share in determining their own earnings."

"Hand-Shakers" Get Jobs.

The lack of this representation in the determination of wage scales, according to the report, was one of the principal reasons why the steel workers of this company walked out practically as a body when the national steel strike of 1919 was called, notwithstanding the fact that they had already enjoyed the eight-hour day as well as several other conditions which the men in the rest-of-the industry so badly wanted.

Ben M. Selekman, who conducted the investigation for the Foundation and prepared the report, found that in the opinion of the workers "the most serious obstacle to the success of the plan is the minor local official, not the higher official. As long as the functions of 'hiring and firing' are in the hands of superintendents and foremen, Selekman says, dissatisfaction will exist among the employees. Workmen repeatedly accused foremen of favoritism and of being arbitrary. The fact that the company did not promote employees according to seniority was another common and deeply felt grievance, which though not always reported to the company, was responsible for much dissatisfaction."

"The best hand-shaker gets the job," was the saying among the workers.

BILL AFFECTING 'BABY PANAMA CANAL' UP

Measure in Illinois Legislature, if Passed, Would Virtually End Work on Project.

A bill, restricting the financial power of the Board of Trustees of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, has been introduced again by Representative Frank Holten of East St. Louis before the Illinois Legislature. Holten expects a hearing within two weeks on the bill, which has been referred to the Committee on Farm Drainage. The levee project is known as the "Baby Panama Canal."

The bill requires that all bond issues voted by the Levee Board, except bonds to refund an existing bonded indebtedness, be submitted to taxpayers for approval by a majority of those voting. It also provides taxes levied for a year, except the amount levied for bonded indebtedness and interest, shall not exceed a rate of two-thirds of one percent on the aggregate value of the property within the district. The existing maximum rate is one and one-third per cent.

Effect of Bill, if Passed. The 1924 tax valuation for the district is $45,000,000, a million dollars more than the previous year. If Holten's bill becomes a law, it would reduce the tax-levying privilege of the board from $1.60 to a maximum of 67 cents on the $100 valuation. That rate, calculated by the 1924 valuation, would provide the board with approximately $270,000 for construction and maintenance work. Of the tax levy for the fiscal year 1924, passed last July, $348,000, for operating expenses and $387,000 for outstanding bonded indebtedness and interest. Outstanding bonds now total $1,284,000.

John D. Johns, president of the board which took office last December, Emil W. Holth and Lee R. Newgent, trustees, expressed similar opinions that the Holten bill, if passed, would prevent further extensive construction and would jeopardize the system already built in case of an emergency.

Johns Against Measure. Johns maintained that taxpayers in one section of the district would not vote in favor of a bond issue for work in another section with the result that the board would constantly be faced with a shortage of funds. He said that in case of an emergency, such as an extensive break in the levee, it would first be necessary to vote a bond issue before contracts could be let for repairs.

A similar bill introduced by Holten was passed by the Legislature in 1923. The contention of the former board, however, that the number of votes cast for the measure was two short of a majority was upheld by Judge George A. Crow in the Circuit Court at Belleville.

Grounded Flagship Is Freed.

MANILA, Feb. 26.—The steamship Huron, flagship of the American fleet in Asiatic waters, was returning today to Olongapo after being pulled from a position aground in Malampays Sound, 200 miles southeast of Manila. Naval officers believe that necessary repairs to the vessel will be made quickly and she will proceed to Java soon.

men. Although the plan provides for the reporting and adjustment of grievances, Selokman found the men were reluctant to make complaints because it meant antagonizing officials under whom they had to do their daily work.

Personnel Department Needed.

"These grievances," says the report, "point to the fundamental need of a personnel department with a specially trained staff to deal with the problems of human relations and to leave the superintendents free for the tasks for which they are primarily fitted—that of directing production." The Industrial Representation Plan was introduced in the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. by John D. Rockefeller Jr. 10 years ago. It has since been adopted with variations by more than 800 other companies, including a number of other independent steel producers. The plan provides for periodic meetings of representatives of employees with an equal number of company officials and for joint committees of employees' representatives and company representatives to consider such questions as industrial co-operation and conciliation; safety and accidents; sanitation; health and housing; recreation and education.

Following the preliminary field work of the Foundation's investigators, a number of changes were made in the plan by the company. The report makes a note of these changes, but shows that the fundamental difficulties found in the plan and its administration, both in the coal mines of the company—report on which was recently issued by the Foundation—and in the steel works had not been removed at the completion of the investigation last summer.

W. H. H. Small, 85, Charges Wife Deserted Him in Refusing to Leave Michigan

William H. H. Small, 85 years old, author, scientist, theologian and Civil War veteran, and father of 17 or 18 children—he isn't sure which—is trying to divorce Mrs. Frances Margaret Small, 74, his wife of 60 years.

In Circuit Court at Clayton yesterday, he charged his wife with desertion, based on her refusal to move to St. Louis with him from Monroe, Mich., in the summer of 1923. He has lived since then with a daughter at 6500 Julian avenue.

Says He Was a Good Husband. "I was a mighty good husband," Small testified. "I stayed home nights and wrote books—'Small's Astronomy,' 'Small's Word and Work,' 'The Listener and Condemner' and my masterpiece, 'The Pearly-Gate Key.'"

"Mrs. Small refused to come to St. Louis with me; she took my Civil War pension; and tried to make out I was insane."

Small's wife is contesting the suit, but was unable to come to St. Louis because of illness. Five neighbors from Monroe were in court on her behalf when the hearing began yesterday. It will continue for several days.

Formerly Lived Here. Mrs. Small's attorney asserted that Small wasted his money in the publication of books and bought space in newspapers to air his ideas on science and religion. Her contention is that he is incompetent to manage his own affairs because of the infirmities of age. The Smalls formerly lived in St. Louis, moving in 1919 to Monroe. "The Pearly-Gate Key" is a volume of 200 pages, published by the author, to prove the sinfulness of drinking, by extracts from the Bible.

William H. H. Small, 85 years old, author, scientist, theologian and Civil War veteran, and father of 11 or 12 children—he isn't sure which—is trying to divorce Mrs. Frances Margaret Small, 74, his wife of 49 years.

In Circuit Court at Clayton yesterday, he charged his wife with desertion, based on her refusal to move to St. Louis with him from Monroe, Mich., in the summer of 1923. He has lived since then with a daughter at 6509 Julian avenue.

Says He Was a Good Husband.

"I was a mighty good husband," Small testified. "I stayed home nights and wrote books—Small's Astronomy, 'Small's Word and Book,' 'The Listener and Condemner' and my masterpiece, 'The Pearly-Gate Key.'"

"Mrs. Small refused to come to St. Louis with me, she took my Civil War pension; and tried to make out I was insane."

Mud Flat Delays Liner.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The steamship Adriatic, with 400 passengers aboard for a Mediterranean cruise, piled up on a mud flat in the harbor two hours after she had been warped out of her pier at 1 o'clock this morning. Four tugs worked four hours before she could be floated, whereupon the vessel was anchored off Staten Island until the fog lifted to permit her to proceed seaward.

PRISONER ADMITS
ELSBERRY MURDERSlain Man Was Following Trio
While Looking for a Stolen Auto.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Feb. 25.—A confession that he killed Carl Shumaker of Louisiana, Mo., near Elsberry, Mo., Feb. 17, was made today by Arthur Barnes, 22 years old, and corroborated by Lonnie Clark, 20, and Clarence Baker, 18, who were with him at the time. Prosecuting Attorney Roy Hamilton and Chief of Police Turner announced. They had been questioning the men since last night. The prisoners were identified yesterday by several Elsberry persons as the men seen in a coupe stolen from Clark's Stark of Stark Brothers' Nurseries, Louisiana, which Shumaker was trailing when killed.

The officers said that Barnes, Baker and Virgil Yates of Quincy, Ill., had admitted robbing Mrs. James I. Leach of $765 last Saturday night at the front door of her Hannibal home. They were arrested on this charge early this week and the Shumaker investigation started Tuesday when the man's bullet-riddled body was found near Elsberry, a week after his murder.

Barnes was arrested at Louisiana Tuesday night and Baker at Quincy, Ill., Monday.

Clark came to Hannibal last night and gave himself up, declaring that the tragedy had "worried him so he did not care whether he was caught or not." He made a statement to a newspaper man in his cell at the city jail this morning detailing the stealing by Barnes, Baker and himself, of the coupe from Clay Stark.

"On Tuesday afternoon, the 17th," said Clark, "we noticed we were being followed by Carl Shumaker. We attempted to turn around and got stuck in the mud. Barnes got out and went back with an automatic. I could not bear what was said, but I did hear the shots and saw Shumaker drop. He dragged Shumaker's body to a clump of brush. We then got into the truck and, after driving around for a while, left it."

The weapon which Barnes used was found today at the home of Mrs. Jack Clark, where Barnes and Clark boarded in Louisiana.

Blanket Bond Plan Delayed.

By the Associated Press.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 25.—A plan of the State Highway Commission to enter into a contract with a bonding company for blanket bonds covering construction of State highways, thus eliminating the higher cost of individual bonds for contractors, struck a snag today when the Attorney-General's department held the law creating the Highway Commission did not grant it power to make such contracts.

TROUBLE ON TRAIL
OF 'BARGAIN' AUTOCalifornian's Machine Held by Garageman and New 'Owner'
Is in Jail.

In San Diego, Cal., W. S. Shelley some months ago acquired a good-looking blue touring "bargain" for $170 from a dealer in used cars there. He wanted to make a coast-to-coast trip.

He paid $50 down and $20 a month, his receipt shows. Shelley got as far as East St. Louis, where now a garage man holds the "bargain" for repair bill, the police are holding a check for $20, written by Harry E. Skinner, also held, and Shelley holds the sack.

With patience, buy-wire and many new parts, Shelley told police, he chugged into East St. Louis, where the entire rear end fell out. At a garage door, Shelley, now towed and at last penniless, exclaimed, "I'll take $25 for this car."

A man who was passing stopped, Shelley related to the police, and eyeing the California license plate, replied, "Stranger, I'll take you. Will you take a check? I'm known here. Work between here and Mount Vernon."

Skinner at the station yesterday told a Post-Dispatch reporter that he gave Shelley $5 in cash and wrote a check for the $20 balance on the First National Bank of East St. Louis. He told Shelley, he said.

to hold the check until Tuesday. "I didn't deposit the money Tuesday but I looked for him all over," he said.

Shelley, who is 22 years old, after taking the check to the bank, turned it over to the police and is now looking for a job and a buyer. Skinner was arrested Tuesday afternoon when he came for his "bargain."

ROBERT ROESSEL CANDIDATE FOR THIRD CIRCUIT JUDGE

Webster Groves Attorney Aspires to New Office Provided in Bill Pending in Legislature.

Robert Roessel, an attorney residing at Webster Groves, has announced his candidacy for the office of third circuit judge in St. Louis County as provided for in a bill introduced by State Senator Ralph, now pending in the State Legislature.

While Roessel has been the moving spirit in a number of county civic enterprises, he has been more particularly identified in the prosecution of three cases of public interest. He was appointed special prosecutor before the September grand jury of St. Louis County by Circuit Judge Wurdeman to direct an investigation into the official acts of Adam Henry Jones, former County Prosecuting Attorney. The City of Richmond Heights employed Roessel as special prosecutor in the case of Harry A. Henke Jr., who was convicted of murdering his wife on the night of July 11, last.

In the trial of Beecher Coleman, former St. Louis policeman, sentenced for life for the murder of Albert Saegesser, Webster Groves contractor, Roessel was employed as special prosecutor by the city of Webster Groves.

Roessel has the endorsement of virtually every citizen of Webster Groves, where he is the City Attorney.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Feb. 26.—Claude F. Bossie, formerly City Clerk of Omaha, pleaded guilty to a charge of violating the Mann act yesterday, was fined $500 and promised to return to his rightful wife. BOY, 5, GIVES ALARM WHEN HE SEES HOLDUP NEAR HOME

He Notifies Mother and She Calls Police—Several Other Robbers Reported.

A 5-year-old boy witnessed "some men with guns" making another man "hold up his arms," yesterday afternoon in front of his home at 2146 Farrar street. The child, Milton Schlegel, ran screaming into the house to his mother and she called the police. Investigating they learned that Rutherford T. Smith, a dairy wagon driver, had been held up by two robbers and robbed of $50.29.

Two robbers, operating in an automobile, halted Earl J. Porter, of 3465 Park avenue, an insurance collector, at Tenth street, yesterday, and at the point of revolvers forced him to surrender his collections amounting to $45.

Two robbers forced Harland Nickens, 77, of 814 Warren street, on Broadway, near Warren street, about 1 p. m., to accompany them in an automobile for a ride, which, he reported later, led to the railroad yards near the levee. There, he related, he was carried to an empty box car, robbed of $98.25 and left in the car, bound and gagged.

One of two motorists who drove up to the oil filling station at Seventh street and Franklin avenue, shortly after midnight, tendered a five-dollar bill to the night manager, Louis Compton. When the manager started to make the change, both the driver and his companion drew revolvers and forced him to return the $5 and $25 additional, which was in the cash register.

NORTHEAST BRIDGE APPROACH ADVOCATES CONTINUE FIGHT

Petition U. S. District Court in East St. Louis to Set Aside Order Dismissing Suit.

Advocates of the northeast bridge approach have petitioned the United States District Court in East St. Louis to set aside its order dismissing the condemnations suits for construction of the approach. The suits were dismissed Nov. 15 on the motion of the St. Louis City Counselor after a referendum vote had upheld an ordinance, directing that the suits be dismissed.

Notice of the petition filed in East St. Louis was given to City Counselor Senti today by Luke E. Hart, attorney for the petitioners, J. Luechfield and F. W. Kuehl, St. Louis taxpayers. The petition sets forth that the ordinance passed by the Board of Aldermen for condemnation of the needed land has never been repealed, and it raises the question whether the dismissal ordinance, confirmed by the people in the referendum vote, is legally binding.

Check a Cold —in this way Overnight

COLDS are easy to stop if you take the proper precaution soon enough.

When you start to sneeze or are aware of a chill coming on, drink a good, old-fashioned hot lemonade. Drink it as hot as you can stand it.

Then take a warm bath immediately and go right to bed under plenty of warm covers. See how much better you feel in the morning.

The effectiveness of hot lemonade in the prevention or treatment of a cold is due more to its heat.

Millions of people used this effective "old-fashioned way" during the influenza epidemics with great success, and now they always take

NEGOTIATIONS FOR SALE OF THE COLISEUM HERE REVIVED

New York Syndicate Expected to Announce Decision in Matter Within a Week.

Plans for the purchase of the Coliseum by a New York syndicate, and its conversion into a sports arena and auditorium have been revived. T. P. Bates, president of the Coliseum company, said today that some decision might be announced within a week in the matter, which has been pending since early in January. It was stated at one time that the prospective purchasers had abandoned their plan, but Bates said this was not the case. Jefferson Seligman, New York banker, is interested in the matter.

The deal, as originally planned, was to involve expenditure of $250,000 to $300,000 in purchase and remodeling of the Coliseum property. One feature was to be a salt water bathing pool. The use of the hall for conventions and other public gatherings would still be possible.

Meningitis in Mexican State.
OCTOBER, 1929, by the Press and Publisher Publishing Co., the New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

VERA CRUZ, Feb. 26.—A telegram from Puebla reports that an epidemic of spinal meningitis has hit many towns and villages of that State. There have been many deaths in the last week. Starting yesterday, vigorous sanitary measures were established throughout the affected region. It also is reported black smallpox has caused many deaths in the isthmus of Tehuantepec.

'GASOLINE JACK' SAYS BANK 'SHUT OFF WIND'

Rubenstein Tells How He Built Three Filling Stations With Four Partners.

Difficulties of financing the "Stations That Jack Built" were outlined before Referee Coles yesterday by "Gasoline Jack" Rubenstein, 750 Hamilton avenue, president of the Consolidated Gasoline and Distributing Co., 212 South Twelfth street, a bankrupt concern.

Rubenstein said he began building his three filling stations six years ago. He started with two partners, each contributing $1000. He later bought out these partners, but found the duties of operating the business along with his business of signing criminal bonds too heavy, so acquired two new partners, Charles Ziegler and Gilbert Lowenstein.

Even Pawned His Diamonds.
That was a year ago, when Rubenstein made a financial statement to the Laclede Trust Co., listing a surplus of $21,000. Last year was disastrous for the Consolidated Co. Rubenstein said. He charged Ziegler with acting in bad faith, stating that he "died" Ziegler when he discovered him "working against the company."

Rubenstein said he had attempted to put his concern back on "its feet" even to pawning his diamonds, but that the Laclede Trust Co. "shut off his wind" after the Liberty Bell Oil Co. obtained a judgment of $9200 against the Consolidated Co. Rubenstein said he had failed to settle with the Liberty Bell Co. because the latter concern had sold him "real oil" instead of gasoline.

Gilbert Lowenstein, 633 Delmar boulevard, one of the recent partners of "Gasoline Jack," testified he invested $2300 in the Consolidated company in January, 1924, but never had been certain of his status in the concern. At one time he was secretary, at another vice president, but more often he was the company's collector of "slow" accounts.

$400 Pay for 8 Months.
Lowenstein said his wife also invested in the concern, loaning $2000 for 30 days. She eventually got $1000 back. Lowenstein said his connection with the "Stations That Jack Built" had lasted eight months during which he had drawn a total salary of $400. It had been a period of tribulation, resulting in much worry because of the concern's inability to make good its checks. Lowenstein charged he had been instructed to "kite" checks through Rubenstein's and Ziegler's personal accounts. He said he had done this, but had balked at "kiting" operations through his own bank account.

The Consolidated Co. was placed in involuntary bankruptcy and lists liabilities of $24,000 and assets of $5000. The hearing was continued until next Monday, when Ziegler, the other partner, will testify.

MEDICAL STUDENT SPEAKS IN DEFENSE OF DR. WALDO BRIGGS

Dr. Waldo Briggs, dean of the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons, who has been cited by the Missouri State Board of Health to show cause on March 16 why his license to practice medicine should not be revoked for alleged professional conduct, was raised in an address by Lawrence Murphy, a senior student of his school, in exercises this week held in observance of Washington's birthday.

Murphy stated that the "medical trust," which he described as a political minority of the American Medical Association, composed of "Pecksniffian highbrows," was seeking to destroy the independent medical schools, of which the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons is one.

After fulsome praise of Dr. Briggs, Murphy, speaking for the student body, said in concluding: "We love you, Dr. Briggs, for the love you have for us. We respect you because you are deserving of our respect and we trust you because you have never failed in that trust. Continue to lead and educate us."

Kills Man in Row Over Lantern.

METROPOLIS, Ill., Feb. 26.—G. W. Johnson, 40 years old, a river man, who shot and killed George Tubbs, 28, a laborer, following a quarrel over the return of a borrowed lantern and escaped by leaping from a second-story hotel window, was captured on an island in the Ohio River, eight miles below here, late yesterday, a few hours after the shooting. Johnson asserted that he had shot in self-defense when Tubbs attacked him with a hatchet.

Dawes Buys Gas Company.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 26.—The Dawes Interests of Chicago, headed by Rufus C. Dawes, brother of Vice-President-elect Dawes, have acquired control of the Jacksonville Gas Co., the properties of which are valued at $5,000,000. It is announced.

PHONE TIP ABOUT HIMSELF LEADS TO ARREST IN BOOTH

"Guess I'm Crazy." Prisoner Explains When He Is Trapped at Union Station.

"I got a hot tip for you," a man's voice confided when Desk Sergeant Mier answered the phone at Laclede District Police Station yesterday. "You want to get Clarence Pennington and give him all you got. He's got the dope on a big auto theft ring, but he's hard-boiled. If you sweat him hard enough he'll kick in."

Sergeant Mier saw a practical joke. He wig-wagged to a detective who grabbed another telephone and traced the call. The informer was in a booth in the Union Station midway. Wig-wagging back to Sergeant Mier, he dashed out and into an automobile.

Mier chatted on. He asked useless questions and thanked the unknown one volubly for three minutes.

DIES DAY AFTER HE WAS ELECTED FOR SIXTH TERMBy the Associated Press
CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Alderman

Joseph O. Kostner, mentioned in the recent trial of Gaston Means in New York, and who was elected for a fifth time to the City Council Tuesday, died suddenly yesterday in a hospital. Heart disease and nervous trouble, for treatment of which he was sent to a hospital seven weeks ago, were ascribed as the cause of death.

Alderman Kostner was reported to have received about $25,000 contributed by several men who sought aid of Means in hope of avoiding prosecution on mail-fraud charges. The Alderman at the time denied any improper connection with the affairs mentioned in connection with the conviction of Means on a conspiracy charge.

FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Henry Sanford Accused of Promising to Marry When He Was Already Wed.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Henry Sanford, millionaire son of the late Prof. Samuel Sanford of Yale and grandson of a former president of the Adams Express Co., is defendant in a $200,000 breach of promise suit brought by Georgia M. Hopkins.

Yesterday Supreme Court Justice Wagner set aside a notice of examination before trial, which had been obtained by the plaintiff's attorney, Max L. Steuer.

Sanford, according to the complaint, on Aug. 8, 1923, promised to marry Georgia Hopkins. Later, the complaint says, she found he "was a married man with children." The shock, she alleges, caused an illness which she believes is permanent.

Sanford, who is 47, inherited $2,000,000 on the death of his grandfather, Henry Sanford of Bridgeport, in 1903. He has been married twice. His first wife was Miss Jessie Grace Battersby of Brooklyn, daughter of A. H. Battersby, who was treasurer of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, and the divorced wife of William A. Engeman, then president of the association. They were married in 1901. About four years later he sued to annul the marriage, alleging his wife's divorce from Engeman, obtained in Wyoming, was invalid here. The annulment suit was withdrawn.

Later he brought action for divorce, which did not come to trial. In 1906 Mrs. Sanford obtained a divorce in Bridgeport, with $50,000 outright and $2000 yearly alimony. In addition to $1200 annually for the support of their son.

The next year, 1907, Sanford married Miss Caroline S. Edgar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Edgar and a member of a wealthy New York family.

HERRIOT CITES MARK-IN PLEA FOR STABLE FRENCH CURRENCY

Hopes World Will Esteem Attitude of French in Aiding Recovery of German Finances.

Copyright, 1925, by the Press and Publishing Co., Inc., New York City and the New-England.

PARIS, Feb. 26.—Premier Herriot, speaking to the members of the Anglo-American Press at lunch yesterday, intimated the re-establishment of the franc is a condition of all further international settlements.

He asked his hearers to bear witness to the energetic methods the French Government is employing to attain that end as quickly as possible. He mentioned also the willingness France displayed at the London conference in collaborating on schemes for putting German finances on a sound basis.

It seemed they had succeeded so well, Germany is now able to lend money to her industrialists. France is not jealous, but hoped her attitude would command the esteem of her friends in America and Great Britain. Herriot declares his own ambition was to serve the cause of peace and security and he would continue with his whole heart efforts to draw closer the bonds of friendship between the United States, England and France.

SUIT TO COLLECT BOND OF

$25,000 FILED IN U. S. COURT

Action by Royal Indemnity Co. Against E. P. Whitbread Involves Dispute Over Accounting.

Suit to collect a $25,000 bond was filed in Federal Court today by the Royal Indemnity Co. of New York against Charles P. Whitbread, his insurance agency, Charles P. Whitbread & Co., and his wife.

It alleges that prior to June 18 last, when the indemnity company terminated a contract for an agency held by the Whitbread company, Whitbread had collected for it $27,426, which he had failed to remit. The bond in question was signed by Whitbread's wife, his mother, the late Mrs. Minnie C. Whitbread of Edwardsville and his brother-in-law, D. H. Mages, former Mayor of Edwardsville.

"This is entirely a matter of accounting," Whitbread said in answer to the suit. "The Royal company claims more than is coming to it, but as money due it comes in it is being held for payment to them; they have failed to answer letters directing how it shall be paid. There was another bond for our agency, supplied by the Employers' Liability Co. of London, and I understand that company denies the Royal has any claim against us."

COURT OF APPEALS TO SPEED UP TYPING OF TRANSCRIPTS

Judge Dumes Calks Stenographer to Account for Delayed Preparation of One.

The St. Louis Court of Appeals yesterday adopted a policy of calling in official court stenographers in regard to their failure to prepare transcripts for bills of exceptions in appealed cases. The first to be questioned was Thomas J. McCarthy, who took evidence in a case tried before Circuit Judge Hartmann last spring. The losing side appealed, but counsel complained that he had been unable to prepare his abstract for argument because McCarthy had not furnished a bill of exceptions. McCarthy explained to the Court of Appeals that he is now practicing law and had fallen behind in his shorthand work on account of a number of previous orders. He said that since the first of the year he had written six transcripts and he would be able to have the one in controversy ready in two weeks. With this assurance, Presiding Judge Dumes docketed the case for argument in April.

Judge Dumes stated that the Court had complaints against other shorthand reporters, one of whom will be questioned Monday in regard to failure to have ready a transcript.

TWO MEN IDENTIFIED AS GLASS 'DIAMOND' SWINDLERS

Shoe Dealer Says One Posed as Gem Smuggler and Other as Buyer of the Contraband.

Two men, arrested on suspicion by Police Captain Doyle of the Newstead Avenue Station, were identified yesterday by Abraham Schulz, 2311 Dickson street, as the two men who came into his shoe store at 2311 Therman avenue, about two years ago and swindled him out of $260.

One of the men posed as a diamond smuggler and the other as a purchaser of the contraband. The latter lacked sufficient funds to make the purchase and Schulz, an promise of a commission of $100, was induced to advance the sum needed. He was permitted to keep the "diamonds," which turned out to be glass.

Harry Levinson, a tailor, of 642 North Euclid avenue, as was told yesterday, identified one of the men—Louis Friedman, a former convict—as one of three men who, on Feb. 5, swindled him out of $250 cash and $500 in jewelry, by the same scheme. Today Friedman and his companion, who gave the name of Louis Gold, 4234 De Tony street, were to be observed by Samuel Katz, a tailor, of 2118 Biddle street, who on Jan. 6 was defrauded of $345 by two strangers.

BANKS CUT INTEREST RATE IN BIDS FOR STATE FUNDS

As Result of "Easier" Money Market, Loss in Revenue Will Total Approximately $250,000.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 25.—Money is "easier" than it was two years ago and a loss to the State of approximately $250,000 in interest on State deposits during the next four years will be received, an average of only slightly more than 3 per cent. The bids for deposits were filed yesterday with the State Fund Commissioners, the highest bid being 2.97 per cent from a Jefferson City bank, and the lowest being 1 per cent, which was bid by a St. Louis bank.

The money is less in eightfold, a bank being permitted to bid for one or more eightfold of the State funds.

SEVEN LIFE-SAYERS LOSE LIVES

French Coast Guardmen Fail to Reach Wrecked Spanish Ship.

LA ROCHELLE, France, Feb. 25.—Seven men of the lifesaving station here lost their lives when the life boat in which they put out from here to try to rescue sailors aboard the stranded Spanish steamer Christina-Rueda, capsized in the breakers. Only three men of the crew of 19 reached shore. Eighteen Spanish sailors who abandoned the steamer, which, loaded with sulphites, was driven aground on the western shore of the island Re in a storm Tuesday, may also have perished. What appeared to be lifeless bodies were seen swaying in the wind in the rigging to which they evidently had lashed themselves. Others of the crew are believed to have been washed overboard by the heavy

TESTIFIES TO FALSE CHARGE IN STOKES' AID

Negro Says He Was Held Prisoner in Hotel After Refusing to Sign Document.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Alleged efforts of W. E. D. Stokes' agents to obtain fraudulent evidence that the young wife of the elderly New York millionaire was intimate with the negro manager of a cafe were recounted in court today by a new witness. Stokes and several of his agents are on trial charged with conspiracy to defame his wife, Mrs.
Helen Elwood Stokes of Denver.

The new witness was "Top," Firse, negro, proprietor of a notion store, friend of Wallace Tyler.
Tyler is the negro manager of the Pekin Theater and cafe, later known as the House of Arts Club, with whose name Stokes' agents are accused of endeavoring to link that of Mrs. Stokes.

"Top" testified that Stokes' agents, Robert Lee, negro, and Joe Bruner, former horse cab driver, turned taxicab chauffeur, enlisted him in a search for Tyler's picture and tried to persuade him to sign an affidavit about Tyler and Mrs.
Stokes.

"Didn't Like the Affidavit."
"Lee and Bruner came to my flat," said Firse, "and showed me the affidavit, and I would not sign it. Lee went away mad, saying, 'I told you that hound dog was no good.'"

"Bruner said, 'What's the matter? I'll scratch out any part of the affidavit you don't like.'"

"I said, 'I don't like any of it.'"

"Firse, who is 5 feet 4 inches tall, and weighs 127 pounds, said he was held prisoner at a hotel by two white policemen for three months.
During those three months, Firse said, he was obliged to pay for special help to carry on the business of his store.

In an attempt to impeach Firse's testimony, Attorney Healy, for the defense, read conflicting passages from the stenographic transcript of "Top's" original statement at the State's Attorney's office, before he was held prisoner.

Just Touched a Pen.
C. E. Burnish, an aged handy man, testified yesterday that he signed an affidavit at the behest of some men and then stumbled about the courtroom, peering closely at Stokes, Daniel F. Nugent, Stokes' former New York attorney, and other defendants without recognizing any of them. John Moore, a negro, said he could not read, or write, but signed some sort of affidavit by touching a pen.

Next to the witness stand came Nate Frazin, cab driver, who was certain 1923 was 1924, and who spent most of his time on the stand in allowing Assistant State's Attorney to convince him otherwise.
Frazin said Joe Bruner and Robert Lee, both indicted in connection with the case, had attempted to have him identify pictures of Mrs.
Stokes as a former inmate of the Everleigh Club.

Photographed Many Flats.
Charles Howorth, photographer, said he had taken many pictures of flats and cafes for Stokes. Frank Hubert, negro waiter, perhaps the most important witness for the State, repudiated an affidavit he signed in which he said that Mrs.
Stokes had associated with Wallace Tyler, cafe proprietor. He said the woman he meant was named
"Dorothy" and that some one inserted Mrs. Stokes' name.

Henry Emond, former dressmaker for girls in the Everleigh Club, fifty Mrs. Stokes' pictures as those was the last witness. Despite of a woman he used to know, he Stokes' urgings, he refused to identify her.

For the beaux and belles of old Tennessee

"It was the gathering place of all the distinguished men and women of the South"—this is how one elderly statesman, former governor of Tennessee, describes the old Maxwell House of Nashville. There the beaux and belles of old Dixie dined and danced. Throughout the whole South the Maxwell House was celebrated for its delicious food—and above all for its coffee. The fame of this coffee, a special blend wonderfully rich and mellow, spread gradually to all parts of the country. Today, this same coffee, blended and roasted in just the same way, is supplied in sealed tins to all who most enjoy good living. Your own family can have the rare flavor and aroma that delighted the old South long ago. Ask your grocer today for one of the blue tins of Maxwell House Coffee.

By Dent McKimming.

The team of seven boxers from Omaha, Neb., arrived in St. Louis this morning prepared for their bouts with Western A. U. champions and other local stars at the Coliseum this evening. A trainer and instructor, Denny Ryan, of the Omaha Athletic Club, had charge of the party.

In four of the seven bouts St. Louis will be represented by the district champion. Omaha boxers did not compete in the district trials this year but the showing made by the Nebraska boys last year was very impressive and Omaha boxers are regarded very highly in amateur circles.

The intercity bouts will be preceded by five or six preliminary exhibitions between good local boxers, among them Eddie Burke, Harry Durso, Frank Kraft, the district lightweight champion, Louis Kieroff, Mike Clayton and others.

Ten per cent of the net receipts from tonight's show will be turned over to the Western A. U. to defray the expenses of the team which will be sent to Baltimore for the junior championships, March 11 and 12.

The feature events of the seven intercity bouts are expected to develop in the flyweight, featherweight and welterweight divisions.

Mike Sansone's opponent, Packy Corcoran, is said to be a rugged fighter. Joe Coffman, a brother of Royal Coffman, who outpointed Bill Johnson last year and was a member of the American Olympic team, is said to be as good a scrapper as his more famous brother and a hard hitter. He will meet Frank Power, the district champion.

CHARLEY O'CONNELL DEFEATS DUNDEE IN LIGHTWEIGHT TOURNEY

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Charley O'Connell of Chicago defeated Joe Dundee of Baltimore in 10 rounds at the Manhattan Casino in the fourth heavyweight elimination boxing bout last night. After a dull, the men suddenly cut loose in the ninth and O'Connell managed to elude Dundee with a right to the jaw. In the middle of the count Dundee, woefully groggy, tried to get up.

He did manage to get to his feet, but in a bent over position. By all odds of boxing he was "up." Before O'Connell could get near him to resume the fight, Dundee went down to his hands and knees again from sheer exhaustion and without being hit. This was against the rules governing boxing, of course, and the referee, who was in a tight spot, disqualified Dundee for going to the floor without being struck.

BERNSTEIN, ILL., QUITS LIGHTWEIGHT TOURNEY

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Jack Bernstein, Yorkville lightweight and former world's junior lightweight champion, is definitely out of the lightweight elimination tournament. Victor Hirsch, his manager, announced today.

Bernstein has been ill for some time, but showed a desired improvement yesterday when Hirsch notified the commission that Bernstein would compete. Today, however, the boxer's condition was not so good and his permanent withdrawal followed.

Horemans Makes Average of 80 in Trimming Suzuki

Hoppe Defeats Welker Cochran and Now Leads in Cue Tournament Standing.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—While Hoppe, defending his world's championship at 182 ballline billiards in the international tournament here, has demonstrated to spectators that his recent advent into the three-cushion field has not harmed his delicate touch, as he has headed the stand.

He had a side bet with Welker Cochran in their match, last night, and the Hollywood youth paid dinner and theater tickets, after the veteran tilted defeated him 400 to 143. Hoppe compiled runs of 109 and 137 and an average of 44.4-5. Cochran showed flashes of form, but fell down on shots he should have made.

The most startling display of the tournament was Edward Horemans' defeat of K. Suzuki, the Japanese champion, 400 to 12. The Belgian champion had a run of 249 and an average of 80, both high marks of the meet.

This afternoon, Cochran and Suzuki will play and tonight's match will bring together Jack Schaefer, former champion, and Erich Hagelner, German titleholder. The first two have lost both their starts, while Schaefer and Hagelner have won single games and lost none.

Billiard Notes

Harry Kirk, local amateur three-cushion champion, defeated L. Watkins, 59 to 31 in 77 innings in the city title tournament at Peterson's. Kirk had a high run of four and Watkins ran five.

NEW YORK.—Johnny Layton, formerly of St. Louis, now representing Minneapolis, won two games from Robert Canefax, the champion, in the National Three-cushion tournament here yesterday. The scores were 50 to 35 in 53 innings and 50 to 30 in 38 innings. Layton had a high run of seven and Canefax ran five.

MILWAUKEE.—Allen Hall, representing Chicago, played sensational billiards in defeating Arthur Thurnwald, 50 to 9 in 27 innings. He had a high run of seven in the evening match, however, Hall lost, 29 to 50 in 49 innings.

CLEVELAND.—Denton defeated Walter Hirsch, 50 to 35 in 53 innings and 50 to 35 in 38 innings. The scores were 50 to 35 in 53 innings and 50 to 35 in 38 innings.

Piker Mat Team To Meet Tigers

Missouri Wrestlers Only Conference Rivals of Washington Squad This Year.

Washington University's wrestling team will meet its only conference rival of the season tomorrow night when the University of Missouri grapplers call at Francis Gym for a series of bouts.

Although the Pikers are not heralding their outfit as a championship contender, Coach Al Wasserman, a former mat champion, thinks his team is much stronger than the unit that represented Washington last year.

The only two veterans on the team are Nick Semple, in the 128-pound class, and Joe Hirsch, who wrestles at 175 pounds. Semple is a clever performer, and although he is not versed in a great number of holds, he handles himself well and is a hard man to down.

Hirsch, who was elected captain of the team yesterday, is one of the best performers on the squad. He is strong, has plenty of experience and was one of the aces of this 1934 outfit.

F. W. Peterson earned his place in the 135-pound division by winning 15 matches in tournaments, defeating, among others, Earl Brewer, who was captain of the team last year. Peterson's main aim is to win a national championship, a new man of some promise, will perform at 138 pounds.

Tom Wohlischlager will be the Pikers' representative in the heavyweight division. Wohlischlager weighs about 195 pounds and has great strength.

NEW YORK RESERVE BANK INCREASES REDISCOUNT RATE TO 3 1/2 PER CENT

DIRECTORIAL action of the New York reserve bank authorized an increase in the bank's rediscount rate to 3 1/2 per cent effective tomorrow.

The advance in the rate with the rising tendency of open market money rates, which recently carried the rediscount rate to 3 per cent, was the lowest since the bank's last increase in the rate to 3 per cent in January, 1924.

The bank's action was taken after the rate had stood for more than a year.

By Lease From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The Evening Post in its copyrighted financial review today, says:

"A better feeling all around was shown in the day's financial markets without, however, any radical stimulus in the news. Railroad car loadings for this season and favorable earnings statements for January and February received in volume, helped sentiment toward the rails. Meanwhile buying of industrial gathered momentum as the day progressed and the group after another being shown attention. Motors, oils and assorted specialties advanced without much difficulty and the shorts in these issues clearly were uncomfortable. By early afternoon the list presented a large number of 1 and 1/2 point advances. Gains in some instances ran much higher. Later, however, with an advance in call money from an opening rate of 4 1/2 per cent to 4 3/4 per cent profit-taking appeared and most stocks receded from their peak levels. Nevertheless, the close was higher on the whole and the volume of trading rose to approximately 1,000,000 shares. The market was moderately active, the feature being an early recession in St. Paul, followed by a sharp recovery on publication of an exceptionally favorable earnings statement for January.

Exchanges Steadier.

Foreign exchanges turned steadier and a fair amount of business was transacted. Sterling was unchanged at 47 1/2. The dollar moved up 1/4 point to 51 1/2. The franc advanced 1/4 point to 20 1/2. The Italian lire and Belgian francs advanced 1/4 point each. The other European currencies were unchanged or slightly higher. Japanese yen continued to gain, adding 1/2 point on the day in selling at 32 1/2. The best price reached since the recovery began. Interest in the market for, of course, centered in French francs, and the action of this currency in recent weeks suggests that support against a sharp present decline is not improbable.

Wheat and Cotton Higher.

After several weeks of short range advances and declines the wheat market appears to have gotten well out of the rut, with the bulls pressing their advantage. Consequently talk of $2.25 or $2.50 for wheat is once more heard. Bullish interest basing their hopes on a technical position of the market and the indicated shortage before another harvest begins. So far, however, the public has not responded having been too thoroughly frightened by the precipitous drop of nearly 20 cents a bushel from the high point reached some time ago. After touching a maximum price of $1.95 today May futures closed with a net gain of 4 1/2 cents at $1.94. Corn moved up 2 cents a bushel in sympathy with wheat.

Cold weather in the South and a continued good spot demand again stimulated interest on the long side of cotton, and at a late price of 25 1/2 cents, May futures were 20 points higher.

France Circulation Increases.

This week's statement of the Bank of France shows a renewal of the upward trend in note circulation, in response to the growing needs of business and end of the month requirements. Notes gained 24,484,000 francs, bringing the total outstanding to 202,000,000 francs. The franc of the local limit of 41,000,000 francs. Discounts increased over 100,000,000 francs, but advances fell 11,000,000 francs. Government borrowings remained unchanged. While one section of French financial opinion is still strongly opposed to an increase in the legal note limit, it seems inevitable that either the limit must be raised or the government notes available for circulation within France must be increased through circulating outside of France, or either case circulation within France would be increased, but a moderate increase in the currency may turn out to be more desirable than hampering business through an increase in the circulation of government notes.

HOOGS CONTINUE ADVANCE.

Stabbed by Neuritis!

Many people suffer attacks by this arch-fiend, commonly called "nerve inflammation." The first warning is usually a sharp stabbing pain, which may "come and go" or hurt constantly. You may feel it in the shoulder, neck, forearm, small of the back, or down the thigh and leg to the heel. It is sometimes mistaken for sciatica, rheumatism or neuritis, which troubles often do end in neuritis.

No matter where you have nerve pains or what caused them, you can get quick relief without using narcotics or poisons. Apply Tysol over the part that hurts, and within a few minutes the pain should be gone.

Tysol is absorbed through the pores of the skin. It has a soothing, healing effect upon the diseased nerve, gradually helping to restore them to healthy condition.

Don't suffer any longer. Obtain a supply of Tysol from any good drugstore—price $1.

when you relieve that acid stomach

THIS offers you a test that thousands have made with remarkable results. A test that throws a new light on some of your common, daily disorders and ailments.

If you go about half sick, have gas after eating, suffer with dull headaches, have sour stomach, nausea, etc.—you are urged to use the coupon below. Then to note what an amazing difference can be made in the way you feel.

Lack of ACID balance the trouble
Almost 80% of headaches, biliousness and stomach discomforts are now traced to an acid condition of the stomach and to bowel disorders. Conditions now easily relieved.

Old-time methods, purges, cathartics, etc., took only bowel evacuation into account. And that is where they failed. You must re-establish correct acid balance in your stomach.

Now a new method of correction has been found. In scores of tests, results have been remarkable. This method is based on a mineral form of magnesia that multiplies the effectiveness of old-time milk of magnesia.

23-YEAR-OLD HEAD OF CAP FIRM HELD ON FRAUD CHARGE

Samuel Duke Arrested on Federal Indictment Charging Use of the Mails to Defraud.

Samuel Duke, 23-year-old head of the Duke Cap Co., indicted by the Federal grand jury on a charge of using the mails to defraud, was arrested yesterday and jailed for lack of a $7500 bond.

Duke was arrested at his home, 5337 Maple avenue. The indictment against him includes four counts, each charging him with sending a false financial statement through the mails to obtain credit. The maximum punishment on each count is five years imprisonment.

Indictment returned Feb. 12. The indictment was returned Feb. 12, and suppressed until yesterday, although the major facts about Duke's transactions were disclosed on Sept. 20, 1931, at a hearing before Referee Coles of a bankruptcy petition against the Duke Cap Co.

At the hearing Duke admitted the truth of testimony that he had caused to be mailed false statements of the financial condition of his company and that in the month intervening between the institution of the bankruptcy proceeding and the appointment of a receiver, he had collected $1381 due the company and had secreted it.

"These statements you sent to the banks and other business houses were just about as far from the truth as they could be, were they not?" asked Referee Coles.

"Yes, sir, just about," Duke replied.

"Arbitrary Statements."
"Am I to understand you just sent arbitrary statements of your financial condition without any relation to the facts?"

"Yes, sir, that's the way it was done."

Referring to the $1381, the Referee asked: "You were hiding this money, then?"

"No," Duke replied, with a smile. "It wasn't hidden. I knew where it was and that was the main point."

Harry Kranzberg, formerly proprietor of a dry goods store at 2612 South Broadway, also was arrested and jailed yesterday, on an indictment charging him with mailing a false financial statement to obtain credit. There is one count against him.

FRENCH DEPUTIES AROUSED BY CRY FOR LEVY ON CAPITAL

Companies Charged With Dodging Tax by Distributing Profits as Stock Reimbursement.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—The cry, "a tax on capital," thoroughly woke up the French Deputies in the midst of their long session held to expedite the revenue bill.

The cry was raised by a member of the opposition in reference to an article providing that total or partial reimbursement of stock by companies should be subject to the income tax, the Government maintaining that there was a growing custom of companies allowing profits to accumulate for several years and then distributing them under the guise of reimbursement of stock, thus eluding the tax. Deputy Flandin of the opposition shouted that the article amounted to a levy on capital, dictated by the Socialists.

Premier Herriot briefly retorted that the article was aimed not at honest folk, but at tax dodgers. It was in the interest of public morality.

New German Oil Sold Under Written Guarantee Rubs Out Rheumatism

A remarkable new discovery of German chemistry, called Buerger Oil, for the relief of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuritis, is revolutionizing the medical world. This marvelous oil cures all rheumatic pains just as effectively as those under German and Russian names for painless dentistry and Anesthetics for headache pains.

Rheumatism in very many cases, is due to intermal weakness (such as a hind leg pulled in a horse) which give off poisons and which are carried in the blood to the joints and muscles. Buerger Oil, when applied to the affected parts, serves to rapidly neutralize and be absorbed by the body tissue. Even in the most severe and stubborn cases almost instant relief has been obtained.

So remarkable have been the results from the use of Buerger Oil that the American distributors have authorized local druggists to dispense it for rheumatism, gout and Neuritis, suffering in this city with a positive written guarantee to return the full purchase price of the first bottle if it does not bring wonderful relief. All sufferers should promptly take advantage of this guarantee. For sale at Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., Judge & Delph Drug Stores, Johnson Bros. Drug Co., Keiffer Drug Co., 17th Street, St. Louis, Mo.
